DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED DURING THE JOURNEY FROM PORTO ALEGRE TO SAN PABLO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Wherever you go, take with you, and in your heart, the unfathomable ocean of My Mercy; pour it out wherever you go; convey it wherever the Father has you walk and pray.

I thirst for the most distracted souls, because the power of My transforming Love still does not reach them.

You must take My Unfathomable Mercy wherever you go, because thus, by some inner means, I will find a place where I may sow My Redeeming Light, so that the souls most separated from My Heart may one day recognize My Will and My Merciful Love.

Carry in your being My Unfathomable Mercy and make it known in the unfaithful world, because thousands of souls would not be able to reach Me if in truth there were no apostles of mine, servants of My Heart and of My Soul, to bring the refuge of My Mercy wherever necessary and whenever necessary.

Let no place cause you contempt or fear. Accept, as of now, the human condition that humanity has, the same that you have.

Thus, being merciful and prayerful, you will be with Me to transform this planet that is in agony day after day.

I thank you for holding My Words in your heart!

Who blesses you for this next mission,

Your Master, Christ Jesus
