

Monday, April 30, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

Daily I address My words to your hearts because they have the gift of wisdom and understanding. Therefore, little children, know that the true words that come from My Immaculate Heart want to awaken in you the precious gifts that My Son has given you.

You must open your hearts day by day as the roses open up in the morning when they see the sun, and this may happen through the prayer that is born with the purity of the heart.

Dear children, you know how important Inner Peace is in these times. So that it may exist in all My children, I form you in the school of prayer so that your hearts may also call other children who must awaken in time to the life of prayer.

For this reason, I leave you the mission of praying for all of those children who are waiting to be healed from the sorrow and alleviated from the loneliness which invades their lives day by day.

All My children will be under the spirit of Grace in order to receive the strength to begin the path of the rehabilitation of the heart. This will happen when each one of My praying children extends their hands and delivers the love from the heart to those who, in truth, still cannot recognize the Face of the Lord.

Because of all this, My children, the task of giving to others must be broader in order to reach the hearts that are most distant.

Today, dear children, I teach you the path of charity through service and prayer because this last time is of immense Graces for the conversion and the healing of the heart.

I hear the supplications of My children and I send My praying Marian soldiers to work through the peace of the heart. Walk, children, towards the Eternal Light of My Immaculate Heart!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity