

Monday, April 29, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My thirst will not be calmed until when each one of the souls has turned itself towards Me and seeks Me as the only light for the world.

I will allow that all of My Flocks learn and mature but I will not allow any of them to be lost. Before that it happens I will have returned in Glory to pour My Graces in those who have lost them by conceit or vanity.

I will open with the key of My Heart the door of My Kingdom and in My Return all of you will be able to see with wisdom that which I have prepared for all from the moment in which I departed towards the universe.

For this until the last moment will be necessary courage and braveness to face the last steps of transcendence and liberation.

Pray constantly so that My Spirit may make itself present in you and you may not waste time in searching for Me. Know that I Am eternally present in your little hearts.

Only allow Me to show Myself as your true love and your true light for the soul and for life. Trust in Me.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus.