DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Have you noticed how many times My Redeeming Consciousness enters at three in the afternoon, in each place of Earth?

While, in each place of the world, it is three o'clock in the afternoon, My celestial permission expands as love and light and touches the essences most deprived of Mercy.

Between three and four p.m. each day, My Eucharistic Heart radiates towards the most distant spheres of the Earth, where a soul that is calling for My Mercy may be. I give everything so that it may be in My Arms, to console it and again give it life.

When a devout soul contemplates Me and adores Me by means of the Chaplet of Mercy, it not only opens the door of its heart so that I may enter but also, if it prays with love, My Shepherd Consciousness, with Its omnipresence, within seconds commands souls out from purgatory; in this way, it elevates them as close to My Kingdom as possible so that they may finish learning and, in the end, they may be a part of My Glorious Eternity in Paradise.

The doors of Paradise are open at three p.m. This is a mission that the angels of Heaven accomplish to elevate all consciousnesses that may be disoriented upon the face of the Earth.

At three p.m. My Merciful Heart collects the appeals of all simple hearts and My Love radiates toward them, transforming them into roses of peace and glory for the Thrones of God.

Each time that you say: "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion..." from the crown of thorns, that I still carry to relieve the world and that is represented by the Chaplet, a thorn is liberated from My Head.

The crown of thorns that was once placed during My Passion was transmuted by the power of the Chaplet of My Mercy, which was given to the venerable apostle Faustina Kowalska.

All those who persist in faith and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will not cause Me pain as the world does, day by day, but at three p.m. your hands in prayer will be spiritually removing the thorns from My Heart and will heal My Spirit with your love for prayer.

My dear, do you see how big the mystery of the Love is, that I have for all of you, as while you nailed Me on the Cross, I poured Mercy instead of pouring pain; I poured Love and Water of Life from My Side instead of pouring justice upon the world.

Because I belong to you as a Heart and as a Master, I was born amongst you and, as I ascended to the Heavens, I will return to give testimony of My Glory and My Truth.

Under the Absolute Truth of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for meditating upon My words with your hearts!

Christ Jesus, your Instructor.
