

Wednesday, April 10, 2013

MESSAGE BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF RÍO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL TO MOTHER SHIMANI

Is it Me who you seek?

Is it the Blessed Virgin Mary?

Where do you seek Her?

Because you will only encounter Me in your hearts if you pray as I have taught you when you were children, with the heart, with devotion and trust.

Beloved children:

I want to transmit to you My love and the celestial promise that in your heart you will always find Me, even when in the future I may not come month by month to instruct you and fill you with Graces.

For the coming time you must already have realized the real and true connection with My Immaculate Heart, that which will always be in your inner world, which will eternally guide you towards the Heart of My Son.

I Am amongst you, working so that in this time you may put Me inside of your inner, that there I must be today and in the future. So that when you no longer listen to My words through My visionaries, you may be able to listen to them in your inner temple, there inside of your heart.

I want that you listen to Me as you listen, and feel the consciousness of your mothers from the Earth, those who you are able to perceive with clearness whenever you need them.

It is simple like this. You just have to open to Me the door of your lives so that I may be able to enter.

Do not fear anything, in this way I, your Mother of Heaven, will be able to act profoundly on you. See how simple it is for Me to be in your hearts.

I love you and I protect you always. Thank you, dear children, for listening to My words with the heart.

Mary, Mother of God and of all of the souls.