

Saturday, December 8, 2012

WEEKLY MESSAGE,

TRANSMITTED BY THE VIRGIN MARY TO SISTER LUCÍA

Dear children,

My Immaculate Heart comes today to you to give to you My blessed Peace. Do not fear to open your hearts, My little ones, so that this Peace may reign in your beings.

Today I bring the Light of My Heart to illuminate the abysses of this Earth and to take Light to all of the hearts that live in darkness. In this way I want to teach you, My children, through the purity of your hearts, to move away all the darkness that is approaching and to illuminate the hearts that are extinguishing.

Dear children, I come to ask you that you do not lose the fervor in prayer and that you never cease to seek, in the depths of your beings, the purity that God deposited in the core of each one of you. Because, it will be this purity that will sustain you in the times that will come. It is not necessary to fear, only to persevere and to prepare the inner world by means of prayer, forgiveness and silence. Always when your little hearts call for My Heart and ask for the Mercy of the Lord with sincerity it will come and expand the Peace of God for the world by means of the sincere intervention of your hearts.

For My Heart to be able to be before God, dears, to intervene for My little children, I first need the total surrender of your hearts and the true aspiration of each one to be an instrument of My Peace and My Universal Love.

If your hearts pray and be consecrated each day a little more to the Plan of God, moving away from your minds the harassment of the enemy, I will be able to protect you, guide you and conduct you by the hand to the encounter with the Creator. But if your hearts are invaded by modernity and by vanity, My children, forgetting that My Immaculate eyes observe you, I will only observe you and pray day and night so that your little beings may perceive My presence at your side.

My dears, the final times are already at the door of this world. Light and darkness are waiting to reign in the inner and deep world of each one. It is necessary to choose the path through which your feet will walk. My Heart waits for you with Love and it is attentive to each prayer that your hearts make with sincerity. But the enemy is also attentive to not miss even a single distraction of your hearts in order to invade them with modernity and sensuality. For this seek for purity, My children.

Seek to be perpetually in My Heart and thus I will be able to sustain you. Do not leave a single minute from My arms for I have already started to walk, carrying My little children in the direction of the Redeemer.

And those who persevere, I will deliver you to the feet of the Lord in His great Temple in the Heavens.

I love you and I thank you eternally.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.