DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Truly I say to you that the soul who clings with devotion and love to the hour of My Mercy will be recognized as a blessed soul, capable of being able to carry between its hands the standard of My Peace. In this way I will give to it, at the culminating hour, the power of the Word and of the Spirit so that the hearts may be able to recognize My Presence between their lips and their little spirit.

I am also here on this day to confirm to the souls that since the beginning made a vow of consecration to My Most Sacred Heart of Love. For this, in addition, I tell you that no soul will lose the bond of love that unites it to My Heart as long as it answers to the greatness of My Eternal Call.

In this time of purification for your hearts My Rays descend from the heart of this universe to unveil the mysteries of My Christification as a Man and as a Consciousness. This happened with the intention that all of My disciples, as souls of the world, may be able to soon imitate My steps in the different phases of life.

Dears, day by day I bring you My Kingdom so that in your earthly life may be affirmed the commitment of your souls with My Eternal Spirit. In this way your example of love and of devotion to My Sacred Heart will open the door for all of the consciousnesses that live in suffering and in the eternity of their own hell.

Whenever your beings, in spite of everything, are available to receive Me with truth and faith at three in the afternoon, the inexhaustible Source of My Mercy circulates throughout the world as a flight of the Holy Spirit to convert the hearts, and to liberate from ties those who live tied up to the illusion of the world. Day by day, through My Mercy, I invite you to the collaboration with My Plan of Rescue and of Conversion of the world.

Under the Infinite Light of the Father and of the Holy Spirit, be blessed.

Thank you for meditating on My words with the heart!

Christ Jesus, He who returns in victory to your lives.
