

Saturday, March 16, 2013

WEEKLY MESSAGE,

TRANSMITTED BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children of this house of love and redemption:

Today I want to prepare you for the encounter that you will have with the Most Sacred Hearts of Saint Joseph and of My Son Jesus.

None of you imagine today the importance of this encounter. As I have told you in these last days, the Sacred Family will engrave its codes of light in this community consciousness and it will impress the archetype of the family of the coming humanity.

The commitment of revealing this mystery for the spiritual life will remain with you, a mystery that will find true answers in those who may enter in Our Hearts because there is where all things of Heaven and Earth are revealed with wisdom.

The New Humanity will be based on this new archetype that will live fraternity between beings, a fraternity sustained on the true spiritual and Christic love between creatures.

My Son waits for you in order to bring peace to your hearts, to enter in the dwelling of those who do not fear entering in His Heart and to be under His Will. He will make of some of you his companions and He will send you out two by two throughout the world so that you may carry His Mercy and His Word.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph will come to touch the hearts of those who still have not encouraged themselves to see their salvation, and the salvation of humanity, in the service to the neighbor.

He will leave the stamp of His humility on the meek hearts, those who will take, far from this place, this love that they have received and learned here.

My beloved children, creatures of the Highest:

Open your hearts, as in this time God waits for you in His Heart to forgive all of your faults, and so that you may definitely achieve the peace that your consciousnesses need.

I bless, with My Maternal Love, this house that has learned to discover, in My Immaculate Heart, a safe path towards Heaven.

I guard, in My essence of Mother, all the love that you give Me.

Thank you for being with Me today.

I love and I bless you.

Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, coming to the heart of each one of you.