

Saturday, January 19, 2013

WEEKLY MESSAGE,

TRANSMITTED BY THE HOLIEST VIRGIN MARY TO MOTHER SHIMANI

In My Pious Kindness I receive you today. In My Pious Kindness I guard you today. Together with the Holy Spirit I receive you today. Take My Maternal Love, today it is for you who in unity and reverence will start to serve God in this new cycle.

My beloved children:

Today I want to present to you the Spirit of God, the one who filled the beings of Mary and of the Apostles and who today comes to you, as to other members of this humanity, to accomplish what is written by the hand of God in the great book of Heaven.

Today I call you to the deep reflection of the heart, the one which searches in the depths of the consciousnesses for the infinite wisdom, the one which the Holy Spirit deposits in the souls of the servers of the Father.

My dears accept inside you this Glory that the Highest Creator Father wants to give to you. Open your beings to this Divine Spirit and He will fill you of Divine Grace. In this way you will start this new cycle of humanity, the one which prepares for the advent of the Redeemer Christ who announces the definitive change in the planetary consciousness.

Dear children: one more time our Creator offers to this humanity the possibility of living together with His Favorite Son, the one who lived and gave His Life for all of you. Together with His Coming, the Holy Spirit will guide the consciousnesses of those who offer themselves to give their lives to the service of the One and Only All Powerful God.

On this day, My children, My presence amongst you marks the beginning of this stage in which I will be the guardian of all of the children of My Father who may enter into His Love and may serve His definitive Plan upon the Earth.

The Love and the Wisdom of the Spirit of God contemplate you and waits for those who do not fear staying empty of themselves, those who do not fear the pain, the cold, the hunger and the thirst because they know that they will be relieved and satiated by the perfect Love of the Redeemer.

My dears: praise, always praise the Supreme God, be like the angels of heaven who serve in permanent praise and in it get to know the Glory of Heavens. Praise is for you also.

I come to tell you that you must open your doors without fear because I will always be the guardian. Trust, trust in the love that I bring to you.

I love you eternally,

Mary, Queen of Peace.