

Tuesday, February 5, 2013

SPECIAL MESSAGE IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE, DURING THE VIGIL OF PRAYER, TO SISTER LUCÍA

Most beloved children,

I come today to transmit to you a special message of consecration to the Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary so that all of the Marian groups may be renovated in My Heart. What I ask to each one of My Marian groups today, My children, is that they persist in accompanying Me with joy and fidelity, opening their hearts to the perpetual union with Me.

In this way, My children, I will come by means of your hearts to awaken and to save all of My children that are lost in this time. I come, through the redeeming prayer of your hearts, to rescue My missionaries who became lost during their missions. I come to strengthen those hearts that perceive themselves as weak before the world and each test that humanity lives in this time.

My children, to all those that have decided to persist united to My Heart, I warn: do not fear to live the tests of this time, for it will be necessary to learn to Love, as My Son Jesus loved, even amidst the apparent chaos.

Know, dear children, that each test lived by your little hearts in this time, as hard as it may seem, is sent by the Lord so that My little children may see themselves strengthen and mature.

I consecrate and bless all of the groups of prayer that accompany Me today. And I reveal to you, My children, that I am with each one of My Marian groups. And I ask you, each time that you start to pray, to listen to My voice guiding your prayers, because I come as a kind mother to teach each one of My children to pray with love, with the heart and to renovate themselves with each pronounced verb.

In this day, My children, consecrated to My groups of prayer, I ask you to offer the awakening of yourselves to all of My children of the world who do not find the strength to accompany Me and who day by day lower their arms.

I come, in this end of the day, to deeply thank you for praying together to Me and for recognizing My presence in your hearts.

I Am with each one of My children, in your hearts and in your houses, sharing the sacred daily life of each one. And for Me to be even more close to your hearts, My children, transform your lives into a perpetual prayer conducted by the Virgin Mary and thus, each step, from waking up to falling sleep, will be guided by My Heart.

I thank you for answering to My Call.

Mary, Queen of Peace and of your lives.