

Sunday, October 7, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRASIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Today, contemplate the Eyes of God, which are set on the world. The Father observes the lack of love and ignorance of His children, but moving beyond all of that, with His Gaze, He touches the purest essence of His creatures.

Contemplate the Eyes of God, which are set upon the world, waiting for souls to perceive the collapse of nations, which announces the beginning of a definitive cycle for humanity. The Creator Father waits for the eyes of His children to also lift up to the Heavens, and in a sincere prayer, understand, within themselves, the true meaning of life.

Do not seek outside yourself for support and sustenance for these times. Seek your sustenance, child, in the gentle and compassionate Gaze of God, which reaches the four corners of the world, impassive in the face of the atrocities caused by humankind, because the Father, Who sees all things, penetrates far beyond your miseries and stands firm in the truth of hearts.

Contemplate the Eyes of God, fixed on the truth that exists within beings, and see, reflected in them, what you truly are. When you seek God, you find yourself, you find your true self, you find what makes you like the Father, you find the meaning of your existence. For this reason, child, in this cycle of doubts and confusions, when souls walk lost and directionless in the world, place your gaze on the Gaze of God and, like Him, hold your heart in the truth.

You have My blessing for this.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph