

Sunday, November 29, 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When from your own inner self begin to emerge all that for eons of time has been hidden in the human consciousness, as codes that degenerate the Project of God, many may be destabilized from the internal, emotional and psychic points of view, depending on the bond of each consciousness with this information and the way it has been balancing negative codes with positive experiences over the course of its existence.

When that moment comes, dear ones, it will remain for you to open your heart and trust those whom you will have at your side in greater balance to assist you. You should cling strongly to humility to ask for help and let yourself be guided. You should also cling to fraternity, in case you have to help others.

The development of love will be an opportunity given by God in every instant of your lives, especially in the moments of the inner transition of each being and the own transition of the planet as a whole.

You must remember what I tell you, because many trust that they will be in perfect balance and will always be those who will help others and not those who will be helped. But it will not be so, because ninety-nine percent of human beings are unaware of the roots of all that they live on Earth and ignore that they came into the world to balance codes of their own consciousness that needed such degree of love to be converted and that only on Earth they would reach it, in this small planet, in which the great Project of God was conceived, which had its triumph in Christ.

Not counting on this reality and fully enveloped by ignorance and illusion, it will be expected of most people to open themselves to humility, but this will not be easy in a race that, for centuries, has been the result of the greatest codes of pride, vanity and selfishness, that came to be converted by the Love of Christ, by the Christic life.

However, dear companions, everyone will have an opportunity and no one will be left without being contemplated in this School of Love. It will be up to each one to open himself to the choice of the superior life, of fraternity, of unity and allow himself to be guided by God, trusting in love, more than in his own self.

When I tell you to trust in love, it is also to trust in unity among brothers and sisters congregated for the same purpose and know that, if you are united in heart, you will always sustain each other on the right path. However, if you discredit love and unity and want to follow your paths based on your own will, you will deny the Plan of God, which is based on love and unity among all beings, regardless of differences or even mistakes committed throughout their existences, because love heals all things and, in the spirit of unity, the love of one will suffice and balance the error of the other. This is the Law of God.

I love you and, that is why, I come to the world, as well as the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and of Mary, so that, in unity with human beings, Our Infinite Love for all may balance the errors of the past and give you an opportunity to start over in a redeemed race.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph