WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT THE COMMUNE OF ARCHAMPS, HAUTE-SAVOIE, FRANCE, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Pray, and in prayer, take the Reliquary of My Heart to go on a pilgrimage around world; let Its Rays of compassion and humility penetrate the hardest of hearts, hardened by its pride and arrogance.

Pray, and in prayer, take the Reliquary of My Heart to go on a pilgrimage around the world; let Its Rays of peace and unity with God permeate the souls that are more lost and distant from the Creator.

Walk with Me, with your praying heart, throughout the four corners of this world and do not forget, son, that prayer is the bridge to the union with God, not only for you but for each being of this Earth.

Contemplate the Reliquary of My Heart and, running through this small and humble wooden Reliquary, come to My Spiritual Heart of Servant, Companion, Father and Friend, so that you may learn, from Me, what I learned from God and that, in this way, you may receive the virtues that will make you an instrument of the Heavenly Father, just as I was and I am.

Contemplate the Reliquary of My Heart so that you may learn to intercede for the souls and, in silence, not only tell Me what you need, but ask God, through the intercession of My Heart, for all the needs of the world, those real and urgent.

Pray and, with your prayer, take the Reliquary of My Heart to go on a pilgrimage around the world and, in this way, let each one of your brothers receive what they need from God; receive mercy, forgiveness and grace, receive hope, faith and joy, receive healing, faithfulness and strength, in order to fulfill their spiritual commitment.

Everything the Creator has given Me, I give it to the world, through the Reliquary of My Heart.

So, child, receive what I give you, and in prayer, give the thirsty to drink from this Fountain of Graces.

Your Father and Friend, everlasting Companion,

Most Chaste Saint Joseph
