DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Believe in the day when Heaven will descend to Earth and the angels and saints will dwell with humanity.

Believe in the day when Heaven will descend to Earth and your Lord and King, in the vestments of His Son, will return to proclaim Peace, making all difficulties small, making fears meaningless, making pains nonexistent, making simple the love to others and to God, above all things.

Believe in the day when Heaven will descend to Earth and Truth will manifest before human eyes, revealing the secrets of a superior existence, revealing those beings who have always been here to aid humanity, but that mankind has never been able to see.

Believe in the day when Heaven will descend to Earth and will reveal that the superior life does not only dwell in the Heights. It will reveal the sacred that is kept in the depths of the planet and that is safeguarded in the beauty and in the fortitude of Nature, because the moment has not yet come for it to be known.

Believe in the day when Heaven will descend to Earth and your Lord and God, after having poured out Justice, will return to emanate Mercy upon the hearts, healing upon the spiritual wounds, restoration for the spirit of the Earth and Grace to establish the thousand years of Peace.

Believe that everything will pass and that what seems like the end is the announcement of something new and unknown to mankind. What they call the end is the end of deceit, the end of time counted by the clocks of the world, the end of days and their cycles, so that it may be the beginning of the Eternal Time, the Supreme Truth of God.

Believe that this day will come and keep your faith in the unknown, because all the prophecies of Your Creator Father will come to be fulfilled and the day of His Truth will be a reality in the life of this world.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
