

Monday, November 5, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Receive, in your hearts, My love, My peace and My reverence because today I revere you, Mothers and companions of Christ, spirits of love and abnegation, who, throughout your evolution, left printed on Earth the sweat of your effort for corresponding to God and for manifesting His Plan.

Today I revere you because, in spite of the human difficulties, you seek to serve and renounce until the last minute of your lives.

Today I revere you because in your consciousnesses a unique legacy is kept; in the mirror of your hearts is reflected the history of redemption of humanity, the manifestation of the Plan of God that, throughout time, has transformed you so that, as part of humanity, you would always correspond to the Divine Will.

Today I revere you, nuns, mothers, companions and spouses of Christ, because with your love you keep alive the legacy of the Hierarchy on Earth and, until the last minute, you will leave, for those who come after you, all the teachings you learned and lived throughout your lives.

Today I wanted to be here and, as an inner movement, gather you in My presence to give you thanks for your life and existence and to leave you the open door for a new time in which you will have new and eternal children and companions.

As I revered the most Holy Mary at each moment of our lives, today I revere you and say that it does not matter if nobody sees you or if the service you do today is simple and many times silent; God contemplates your effort and knows about the eternal renouncement that you live in this time. May surrender be your eternal companion, may renouncement and humility be your service in this time.

Greater than any humanitarian mission, in the most miserable places of this world, is the service of a sincere soul who, with love, renders each moment of life to God, even if only the Creator knows about this surrender.

Today I come to renew your vows, perpetual vows of love to God, so that you understand that your mission now is between each one of you and God. By truly renouncing and being humble of heart, you will keep the doors open, which unite humanity to the Father, and this is what matters the most in this time.

I leave you My blessing of Friend and Companion, because I have been walking with you for a long time now and I will continue walking for the thousand years of peace and until the triumph of Love in the Divine Creation.

I thank you for being here and for being untiring in faith and in unity with God. Receive My love and My reverence.

Your Companion and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph