

Friday, June 21 of 2013

SPECIAL MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN COMUNIDAD FRATERNIDAD, MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

I call My house all the homes that in a simple way open to Me the doors.

I call sheep of the flock of My Lord all those who permit themselves to discover the plenitude of a purity that is born from the heart and that expands itself as Charity and Fraternity between beings.

If you call Me, I will come. If you open your hearts, I will instruct you and if you follow My words with Love, making an effort to live the new Laws in life, My Most Pure Heart will be able to be even closer to all of humanity.

As a Shepherd of a flock that heads towards the Universe, My Heart awaits for a single heart to open so that all of humanity receives the Grace of My presence on the Earth.

My Love for humanity represents the Love of a Consciousness that has been upon the Earth and that managed to be faithful to God through simplicity. Inside of a humble home, in a poor village, working in silence in the wood shop, I discovered the Universe of God and Its Mysteries.

I come today to bring this symbol to your hearts: that it is through simplicity that you will encounter that which is most occult in the Kingdom of the Heavens, it will not be through infinite readings or visiting uncountable places of study and meditation.

Seek, children of God, in the depths of your hearts the Truth of Heaven. Be simple to be able to discover that the Kingdom of God really lives within your hearts and that all the comprehension of the Mysteries of Heaven is enclosed in the depths of these hearts that you yourselves do not know.

Listen with attention: My Heart was a human heart, of a poor and humble man without much knowledge or many aspirations. Aspire only to dive with depth in the Heart of God and each time that a Divine Mystery approaches itself to your beings seek in silence and loneliness the union with God and, in your hearts, all will be already unveiled.

Humanity is, in spirit, similar to God and in its spirit is found all that God has created. In the pure spirit of humanity is Love which is the only thing necessary to achieve evolution. Within you, My dears, is the key but it is necessary to be pure, to be simple, to be humble.

Seek because you must Seek. Do not seek in order to acquire something, seek because the Plan of God is that you may encounter in your hearts this Love, this Infinite Kingdom of Love.

With the eyes covered you arrived to the world and you search eternally, through uncountable paths, that which in silence you will encounter within yourselves. This that you must encounter is Love, the Kingdom of Love, the Kingdom of God, the single origin of your little hearts.

Encourage yourselves and go ahead.

My Heart also manifests Works of Love in the hearts of the world.

I thank you to trust and to wait in My Heart.

Saint Joseph, eternal Worker of God.