

Thursday, November 15, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Pray as if it were the last opportunity to cry out for this world. Forget yourself and focus your heart on those who really suffer and endure without receiving the love they need to get out of the abysses they are in.

Trust humbly in the power of prayer and do not allow your mouth to pronounce empty words in those moments when you are ready to pray. Remember always that this is your greatest service, that without prayer there is no planet, there is no love, there is no Evolutionary Plan that will manifest because for the human being to be worthy of entering the Time of God, they must first surrender and take the first steps in their transformation.

Today I tell you, child, that there is no better path to humility than prayer, which places you surrendered and transparent before God, and that through surpassing the limits of your own needs, reaches the hearts that suffer and do not know love.

Remember today and always that if you want to reach the Father, if you want to fulfill the Will of God for you and for the world, start praying sincerely, and go deeper each day in your prayer, so that it may become more and more real.

It will not do any good, My child, for you to do many things, to think so much about yourself if, in the end, your heart has not surrendered to a greater Plan.

The path to redemption is simpler than you imagine. Prayer itself will teach you to pray, as long as you are sincere and persistent in what is more than a spiritual practice; it is a planetary need.

Pray and I will hear you, and I will unite My Heart with yours so that you may walk this path with faith, and little by little, you may reach God, uplifting your heart and the human heart as a whole to the Creator.

You Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph