

Friday, January 25, 2019

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE AND LADY OF COROMOTO, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Dear children,

Today My humble Son, Jesus, surrendered his place of being in My Arms so that I could have in my arms the most suffering souls of Venezuela.

In My Heart I bring, to everyone, the spirit of temperance and faith, attributes that for these difficult times will help you acquire the necessary state of consciousness which will place you, day and night, to live great tasks.

My children, today I can also feel the alliance of love on the part of all those who offered and endeavored to respond to My call for peace in My beloved Venezuela.

Like rain, My Grace descends on the people of Venezuela who urgently need to reconnect with God in order to get out of chaos, conflict and social war.

The Lady of Coromoto places, under her mantle, all of those who need support and protection against the forces of chaos, which are losing space and action again due to the internal union amongst the praying hearts of different nations of the world.

I invite you, My children, to double your efforts, there is still time to be able to avoid suffering and chaos in the nations of South America.

May your prayer be that column of light that unites you to God.

May your prayer be the way to speak lovingly with God so that the Celestial Father may respond immediately.

In the end, everything will pass, and the souls must only remain with the memory of love in their hearts, they must have within their memory the moments of joy that they lived during the times of great oppression.

Your Mother and Lady of Coromoto extends Her Mantle from the Sacred Savannah, sheltering under It the sacred tepuis all the way up until the Caribbean Sea.

Everything, absolutely everything, will be transfigured, and if that unity and internal strength of the prayerful people continues to be offered for Venezuela, many more unjust situations will be avoided and entire families of Venezuela, who had become spiritually destroyed, will recover the meaning and the joy of having come to the Earth.

Apply, My children, the gift of forgiveness so that the sentiment of wrath is transmuted. May forgiveness, beyond the events, lead you to the Love of God because in the Love of God you will achieve the peace so awaited for by all.

My children, I am with you at every stage and every moment. Remain united to My Heart.

I love you, and I give you My Maternal Consolation.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace and Lady of Coromoto