

Sunday, July 7, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My Life is like a great mirror that reflects upon souls the precious Will of God.

For this, the one who is in Me and who I am in will always have discernment and wisdom sufficient to be able to decide which path to take in this time because My Heart will embrace them constantly and in this way we will be One eternally.

So that this mystery may be revealed in your lives My Heart will give you the living hope of what is forthcoming so that in this way, encouraged by My Consciousness, you may be servers of the New Earth. The one who vigils always in Me will perceive whenever he or she is being challenged to transcend themselves or whenever he or she is being cunningly deceived. In this way there will be no rivals at the moment of the battle because your hearts will be firm in My Heart and nothing will tear you down.

But the one who prays and vigils little will be like the hearts that do not persevere or follow My Words. It is necessary to have a noble and solid spirit to face the currents and the changes that will be anticipated sooner than many believe.

For this the merciful prayer is the spiritual nourishment that I have made known to you within My Divine Priesthood. Asking God for Mercy you will purify your faults and you will start again under the impulse of the purity of the heart.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My words with an open mind and open heart!

Christ Jesus, Your Beloved King.