DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Whoever perseveres and does not get tired of being tested by Me, because of their sacrifice and surrender, will achieve the Kingdom of Heaven.

Therefore, today I invite you to walk in the trust and faith of consecrating your lives to Me and of completely leaving the illusions from the past. In this way you will always have a firm heart and the decision to live the Will of God.

Wait with joy for My Silent Arrival because now time is calling you quickly to the purification and redemption of your beings. When your hearts become clean and pure of every stain I will take you to Paradise so that you may glorify My Father eternally, as do the Saints and the Blessed that honor the Glory of God and His Perpetual transforming Love.

But you will still find stones on your paths. I invite you to walk over each one of them so that in you, the hope for liberation and peace may awaken. Tests exist to be lived and to define the advent of the new being, redeemed and forgiven by My Eternal Light.

I forgive you and I renew you all the days through merciful prayer.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My messages in the heart!

Christ Jesus, Your Faithful Shepherd.
