APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE THIRD DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

What will you do with everything I have given you? What place will it have in your lives? Who will justify what they have received in the most critical moment when everything happens? Just as I come with My Mercy, I must also come with Justice.

Let your hearts not be disturbed; may the Law correct life and may your personas not interfere in the transformation. Accept the corrections that come from the Universe and what the Universe places on your paths so that you may learn to mature in good and in justice.

Everything that comes from Heaven will never be wasted because you will need it for the coming times that will arrive.

Just as I give you knowledge of the depths of My Love, in this time I come to the world to have Justice be known, from which no one will escape. In the meantime, live the penance of the heart so that the Wisdom of My Father may completely permeate you and you are fully aware of everything I ask of you, without being able to later say that you had never heard it. Because here, I come for all and for the world, for the just and the unjust, for those who are real and for those who take advantage of My Presence.

But I can see everything. Not even the smallest cell of your bodies can hide in the face of My Presence. No thought can be held back before the Eyes of the Son of God.

I need you to learn to live transparency so that the things that will happen in the world will not confuse you, and you are not carried away, like so many others, by your own arrogance and power.

I told you once that I want you hot or cold. I do not need the lukewarm of heart. My Love is also Justice. My severity is also Love. Because who else will give their life for you in this time but your Master and Lord, Who is in the Heavens; Who, being seated at the right side of God Almighty, descends from Heaven during this Week to talk with you? Nothing is by chance, companions, and if you are here today it is because your souls have called you, beyond your personalities.

Learn to perceive the reality of this time within yourselves. It is time for the waters to not be divided. I want a single current of Light from all the children of My Father because when I am no longer here to talk with you, you must have My Treasures as a spiritual resource, impregnated by each one of My Words which come to free you, to remove you from error and from the constant chain of suffering.

Everything I give you is Love, no matter how severe it is. I do not come to talk in half measures. The world is in agony and its humanity also. The errors of humanity accumulate like grains in a granary. Who will carry all this weight? Must the Son of God return to carry a second Cross? I have already shown you, companions, the path of transformation and of a true correction.

I come to seek from you the goodness of your souls and the transparency of your spirits. Learn to transcend what does not belong to the Light and what does not belong to My Kingdom.

Learn to die to yourselves so that your siblings who are dead can be born in spirit. It is the time to give your all for Me and not wait to do so. It is time to live cooperatively for the Greater Plan because, if this assistance of Our Sacred Hearts were not taking place at this moment, the world would already be lost, although it does not seem so.

Open your eyes to see the Ray of Justice of My Heart. It is time to build the foundations in honesty, in community and in the good. It is time to have the designs of God blossom and come alive in your hearts. You will not be able to wait another thirty years to experience a great change because there will no longer be time, companions, there is no more time.

With the light of prayer, clean the indifference of your hearts so that fraternity may prevail above all things. Your lives have already transformed but there is much more to come. I cannot tell you the contrary, because the Lord Jesus never lies.

It is time for you to place the Purpose of God at the center of your hearts and that you not be constantly pulled toward tension because you are already conscious of what is necessary and just and, while this does not happen, I will not be able to deepen My Work within you, nor in the world. And I ask you: Who will take on this responsibility?

I asked My apostles to leave their families and homes, their work and their commitments, in order to follow a plan that was unknown to their minds, which was to manifest on the surface with the Passion of your Lord.

Now, at this time, I ask you for greater but very decisive things. I will not be able to accomplish My Work with uncertainties. I need that the firmness that My Heart builds in you to be permanent and that you make it last out of Love for God and His Divine Presence.

Do you by any chance think that I am not telling the truth? I ask you: Do you by any chance think that I am not telling the truth? In the Kingdom of God, Love exists, but also Justice. Without the Justice of God, His Kingdom cannot be fulfilled in this world, nor in another. The Laws of God are for straightening hearts and leading them to the real life, to find a sense of the Purpose.

It is time for you to meditate upon everything you are doing because there is no time to get lost in superficial things. You must focus your attention on the objective and on the goal, on the delays and on the advances of the Plan. Thus, you will be building what I need and you will not be slow to walk because, while I talk to you here about this, many things are happening in the world and they are very serious. More miserable souls need the presence and the Love of Your Lord, but for all this to be possible, companions, I need your truth, not only your truth with Me, but also with the Work, with your siblings, with the daily routine, because in the little things you will show the truth.

I do not ask you to be perfect, resplendent or magnificent. I ask you, I beg you for your sincerity in the face of all that you experience and you do; in this way, you will not be lost like so many others are, and you will take sure steps in evolution, in your walk of faith and of consecration.

Everything that I have given you throughout these end of times must be testified to on the day of the great Universal Judgment. The great Archangels will ask you, "what have you done with My Treasures and how were they cultivated in your spirits?", carrying forward the awareness of what this means.

Now do not let your hearts be sad. It is time to see the reality with resolve. I cannot offer you a garden of roses because there is none. The planetary reality is dire and difficult and more and more Christians are disappointed with My Church, which Peter founded on this Planet. And they are even more disappointed by his successors: priests and the religious; and faith is extinguished.

For this reason, I chose to come here at the request of My Father, to reignite in the world the flame of Love of the Heart, in an unshakeable fortitude and in an unquenchable faith that is able to overcome all times and all tests, all human cruelties and all wrongs.

This is why I need you to be simple and the simplicity of your lives will be attained with the truth that you can look at yourselves without fear, knowing that you are beings in transformation and in redemption and that you are receiving this divine gift to achieve awakening.

For this reason I stretch out My Hands to you; I show you the Aspect of My Sacred Heart and I ask you to take firm hold of My Hands, feeling My spiritual and divine Presence and that you can hear My Words with joy and love because, in this way, your transformation will be swift and you will not be in the old pattern of humanity, but rather you will have your hearts open to hear me, to hear the plea that My Sacred Heart emits to the world today.

Accept My Love that transforms all things; accept the Justice of God that corrects all things; and be glad of being conscious of this and of not being as hypnotized as the world is, far from God, distanced from the love and unity among siblings.

My Work is not taken on just to receive Graces. My Work is taken on to be able to fulfill it and move it forward with acts of renunciation, of penance, of service and of sacrifice, of permanent and absolute giving of self. For something that is to come from the Universe to the world and which must manifest after the Armageddon.

Meanwhile, companions, be brave. Live your inner transformation. You have the strength of My Merciful Love to do it. You have My Presence during these eight days to experience it. What more do you need to be able to concretize it?

If the Son of God descends from on High, from the side of your Celestial Father, to talk clearly to the world without murmuring, I do not want to see you indifferent, because this saddens My Heart. I want to see you giving a "yes" to My Justice, experiencing what you must experience at this time, knowing that the Spirit of God will fill you when your life is just and fraternal. You will lack nothing. In truth, everything and a little more was given to you.

Do not retreat. Advance, as your Master and Lord in this time advances. The redemption of souls, the Christification of hearts, the upliftment of consciousness and the conversion of this planet is urgent; so that you may see how much I love you and that My Love is infinite and transparent, that it brings wisdom and understanding to hearts.

I come again to celebrate the sacraments with you so that your personas do not become uncomfortable, so that the love of your hearts may be what prevails at this moment, trusting in what is non-material and invisible but which comes from the Spiritual Universe of God to talk to you in the form of a Divine Persona.

I come to baptize you with the Water of Spirit, on this special day, in which your consciousnesses experience the first step of the truth of yourselves, without My enemy interfering in anything because when I am present he becomes paralyzed and his works are defeated, the works that he imprints, that he executes within hearts.

But My Justice also comes to dissipate all this, because the just must be just and not manipulated or transgressed; for this reason, you must always live the first Law which is Love so that you may learn to be just and worthy in this difficult time where everything is offered. Unimaginable things are offered so that souls may become distracted and leave their path, losing their evolution.

Like many who are here today, you have been rescued, but others that are not here today have become lost.

My Love will never be lukewarm. It is a Fire that comes to ignite everything, by equality and by justice, in good and in brotherhood.

The Father has given Me the Sovereignty of His Kingdom to be able to carry this Work forward in this time, not only with you but also with the world, moving forward to meet those who suffer most, as Pilgrim and Shepherd of souls amongst the nations of the world and among the peoples.

I hope I have been clear and that your inner worlds have taken in My Word, beyond your minds. Vibrate in My Heart and everything will have been said.

The Holy Spirit acts today through My Mouth so that the Truth of God may continue to prevail among humankind and, above all, amongst brothers and sisters so that true Justice, which comes from the Universe rather than from humanity, may be constituted on this planet and in this time, as one of the Laws of the Armageddon.

Remember this message and everything that I have said to you today for the real transformation of your lives. See this Message as many times as is necessary and do not let it pass by as so many others, or be lost in the libraries.

Remember that My Word is not to be wasted, because My Word comes to be fulfilled in many senses, with infinite purposes, in countless works.

Each one gathers up from within what they need, and may My Words be Seeds of Light within you so that My Will may finally be fulfilled.

I am not the Judge of the Apocalypse. I am the Great Lord, the Redeemer of the World, the Governor of this Celestial Universe after My Father, in the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity. Who speaks to you is the Voice of God through His Son, just as the Voice of God once talked to the people of Israel and to Moses himself in the desert.

The prophecies of the prophets are being fulfilled again before everything happens. The flocks are being gathered together, from different schools and places, with different teachings and experiences, so that all may be unified in the Celestial Church of the Lord by means of the Power of My Sacred Heart, in the Essence of Love and of Divine Unity.

Incense.

I speak to you with the kindness of My Heart.

Today My Countenance is not serious, but My Heart is at peace, because Justice is also Peace, and Peace works in everything.

Lord, grant souls the gift of Your Wisdom so that the hearts of Your creatures may be open to the Light of Your Truth and of Your Holy Justice. Amen.

Water.

Let the water expel what is corrupt and uplift what is incorrupt, in essence, in the non-material spirit of each being.

Within My Congregation, I gather you together for the upliftment of the Planetary Consciousness so that the Mercy of God may each day be deeper in all creatures that were created in the image and likeness of God.

Through the Sacraments, your Master and Lord renews Life, awakens virtues and talents in souls, so that they may fulfill the Will of God and leave this life with a purpose fulfilled, toward the Primordial Source.

Thus, each virtue is a gift that I awaken in hearts. The countless gifts that I awaken in hearts are part of My armies. These gifts that come from the Holy Spirit and that renew life on the surface of the Earth are testified for today through the Sacraments that in humility are granted to hearts.

For this reason, who experiences a sacrament not only experiences a renewal, but also enters into an unknown Mystery that comes from the Fount of God, from the Principle that gave origin to everything, before creatures existed on Earth.

This Mystery is poured out through each Sacrament and a Principle of Divine Energy acts by means of those who offer it and also by means of those who receive it; in this way, a deep and spiritual communion is established with the Primordial Principle of the Source, which is the renewing Love that brings healing and relief to hearts, the forgiveness of their sins and the absolution of their faults through the mediation of the powerful action of the Holy Spirit.

On this afternoon, the God of Mercy and of Divine Justice grants this special Grace to those who today will receive this Sacrament so that it may serve in the next steps of your lives, for the next walk in the sacred infinity of the Universe.

Opening the doors of My Celestial Church, positioning My Hands upwards, so that Our Creator may Hear Me:

Sacred Father of Love, place Your Divine Current in this Element that You have granted by means of the Water so that souls may be bathed with Your Spirit and they may be relieved of all of their sufferings.

I ask you, Sacred Lord, that today you not look at the errors, but rather the faith of souls, the faith that on this Earth constitutes My Celestial Church; and by the Sacred Ministry that You have granted Me, Adonai, and for all merits attained during My Passion on Earth, may all faults be forgiven and may the awakening of the inner consciousness exist in hearts which, by Your Name, Father, will lead them to concretize Your Plan on this Planet.

May the Holy Spirit grant this Grace in the effusion with Your Divinity and may the Angels, that always praise You perpetually, transubstantiate this element that comes from the core of the Earth and that is a part of the life of humankind, which grants healing, purification, and redemption.

May Your Sacred Gift of Mercy, Adonai, merge with this water, thus creating a living essence, a divine vibration when it is poured out over those who receive it.

And thus again, Father, by the infinite Work of Your Mercy and by Your unfathomable Pity, You will grant peace and forgiveness to those who receive this Sacrament.

Sacred Spirit of God, Sacred Flame of Divine Life, be present at this moment, so that Your Love and Your Glory may reign forever.

In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen. (3x)

And now that you are blessed, bless your brothers and sisters. Give one another a greeting of peace.

Today the offering is offered to the Gift of Reconciliation so that this may always reign in the world, especially in the hearts that must achieve the living of Love.

This is why I tell you again, as I told you more than two thousand years ago: "All eat of It, for this is My Body, which was surrendered for humankind for the forgiveness of sins. Take and drink of My Chalice, for this is My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant that will reign among humankind until the return of your Redeemer".

Thus is instituted the Sacred Eucharist of which hearts will avail themselves to testify within themselves to the Presence of My Living Love, which must always endure throughout time.

Friar Elías.

Now we will all stand and will take each other's hands. At the request of Christ, we will recite the prayer that our Master and Lord taught us at the Mount of the Beatitudes, the prayer that brings the Kingdom of God to Earth and grants Peace to hearts.

We will say the prayer in Portuguese, Spanish, Aramaic, and lastly in Latin when the Lord so indicates.

And you will offer these prayers for humanity, for the reconciliation of the peoples and the nations, for the end of wars, of persecutions and of hunger, so that in humanity the Consciousness of Fraternity, of equality and of balance may awaken, so that Divine Justice may be accomplished, where all may live the good.

Our Father...

I want you to affirm in your lives a song that I have chosen today, which is called "The reason for My existence". In this song is revealed the confirmation of the disciple of Christ and a true aspiration to live the new life, a life in the Kingdom of God under His designs and His divine Will.

Granting peace and reconciliation to the world, I bless you, in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you for hearing Me with the heart.
