

Friday, March 30, 2018

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE SIXTH DAY OF THE SACRED WEEK, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

May your cross be the path of redemption and not your agony. May you know how to carry it with courage and merit, because what God pours out into souls is what He must pour out, and nothing is outside of the Purpose.

May the cross be the relief of your debts, the rejoicing of your heart, the path to uplift your soul. May you offer this cross with bravery and may you not think of turning back, because your cross will be the bridge to the Heavens, the wings that will carry you to the Kingdom of God after your purification.

So, My child, do not lament, but rather rejoice in the cross that the Father has given you and whose weight you must come to know. But you must learn to carry it, not with pain nor with suffering; you must imitate Me. I have already taught you how to do so and how to live it.

The cross God gives us is a liberation from the great human condition, from the sin of humanity, from the spirit of mortality. So dare to carry the cross that God gave you and help your brothers and sisters to carry their crosses because in this time it will be necessary to learn to carry the cross and, when you least perceive it, you will have freed yourself of the cross of this humanity and you will be crowned by the Kingdom of My Father, to thus enter Eternal Life.

May your cross be unconditional service, the joy of surrendering to God, every day, the opportunity to renounce a little more, knowing that you will not find suffering nor blame, but rather, you will find the open paths to sacrifice for others, each day more, so as to establish healing in humanity.

May your cross be like Mine and may you live in the spirit of sacrifice, knowing that I have already carried that which was the hardest throughout time and the Father has left the lightest for you, so that you may be able to decidedly walk towards Me.

I Am the Lord of the Holy Cross of the liberation of the world. Happy will be those who walk with their cross towards Me, for they will know the Mystery of Love and Truth. And someday, that awaited meeting with Me will be unforgettable, for crosses, martyrdoms and affliction will no longer exist.

With your cross, My friend, I want you to free the world of its constant suffering and pain. I do not need great offerings, but rather small truthful actions that can show Me the maturity of your consciousness and the growth of your spirit under the principle of cooperation and brotherhood. This will make your cross lighter, when you take the first step out of yourself, abandoning yourself completely in Me, knowing that I accomplish everything that the Father asks of Me.

Now you can see, My child, that the cross is not just suffering but rather an opportunity to surrender further, to drink from the chalice of commitment and to make of each meeting with the Master a unique opportunity, which will only occur once and will not be repeated.

Today I come accompanied by two great Saints and lovers of the cross, who have come to confirm all that I tell you: Saint Pío and Saint Francis, two Saints pierced by the wounds of My Cross.

Why does the Lord want New Christs? Why does the Lord need new apostles if His work has already been accomplished? If in this time there are no hearts decided to bear their own crosses that can follow Me, how will a new humanity be possible?

There will be no ungrateful, indifferent or neglectful people in the New Earth. The New Earth will be of Christs who have known how to carry the cross, without any fear of what will happen.

What I ask of you seems impossible, but it meets up to the events of humanity.

The cross is the portal for the non-redeemed, for the unyielding, for those who do not surrender to Me, nor yield even the smallest space so that I may work in their lives.

All those who accompany My path with their own cross, if they are persevering and consequent, will know the true freedom from the chains of inertia and of human ignorance. Because while the world walks further into illusion, fewer are the Christs that decide to follow Me.

For the sufferings lived on the Cross, I come to meet those few, so that they may represent the majority in My great channel of liberation, for the Blood shed by your Lord, from the flagellation up to the top of Mount Calvary.

I come to meet those who decide to follow Me, in representation of the majority of humanity so that, together with Me, they may bear the wave of indifference, of pride, as well as of arrogance that hardens the hearts, moving them farther and farther away from God.

If you have accepted to live the cross and follow Me, may those evils not be in your hearts, because you will not be able to enter into My Kingdom, neither in this one, nor in the next one.

For My shed Blood, purify your sins, reconcile your lives and do penance so that the Almighty God, the Eternal Father of Love and of Justice, may alleviate oppressed hearts and assist souls lost in the illusion of the modernities of these times, in which the essences of human beings are in a game between good and evil.

While there are souls that succumb to the hells of these times and are trapped by the forces of My adversary, you, who are beings conscious of My call, must double your efforts and your surrender to My Heart, because what you give Me is not enough.

For the sufferings lived by your Lord, from the Garden of Gethsemane to the top of Mount Calvary, today I come to re-enforce this request to My companions so that My martyrdom, pain and agonies lived during the Passion are valued as they should be in these times, and are not placed in second place by the reign of My adversary.

The spiritual forces of the Cosmos are in a great battle. While the clock marks the hours, the events of the world are unleashed.

May your sufferings not be greater, for they are not. Make your own pain small and embrace the pain of the world, which must be transmuted, but now by humanity itself.

Another Christ will not come to do it. It is necessary that you assume the responsibility and the consequences. You are still guided by freedom, and your choice in this time will be definitive. No one can be blamed for it, neither in Heaven nor on Earth.

Your own choice, companions, will define everything, because we are in the last battle, in which the merits attained by your Master and Lord will have incalculable powers in the souls that accept living them, in this battle of the end of times, where the triumph of love or of indifference is being defined.

For this reason, I suggest and I recommend that you never cease to seek the spirit of gratitude. And when you do not feel it or do not see it, prostrate on the ground, and in humility and resignation ask the Celestial Father for it so that your hearts are not filled with arrogance, nor that pride blinds your eyes forever.

I wish that you could understand that what I ask of you is definite. There is no time to lose, nor a moment to think.

The Cross that I carried for you has an incalculable value and its merits must be respected and honored by the disciples of Christ, just as the Universe establishes.

May your hearts not be inconvenienced by My Words, because I know that some do not believe that I am here, but this does not matter to God.

Heaven and Earth shall pass, but My Words will be sown in the humble hearts open to hear the Voice of the Master.

I want the structures to fall and that hearts prevail so that My Sacred Heart may triumph as God expects. To face the end of times together with Me, you must have a clean heart without dualities nor doubts, without hesitancy or omissions.

We are reaching a moment where everything will be defined and I will not be able to say it again, as I have said it many times, so that your consciousnesses may awaken to this.

It is time to live the Plan as God needs it. It is time to carry out the Plan as God expects, because there is still much to do.

By My sacrifice you will be honored, by My suffering you will be recognized, by My Cross you will be uplifted to the House of the Father so that His great Will may definitely be accomplished.

If today you have brought the cross with you, it is because you accept it and although you do not deeply know what it is about, you are opening the path for the realization of the Plan.

Do not be afraid for everything that I tell you; it is time to face the call and not to be living on two paths, because sooner or later you must define yourselves, and that will be between you and God.

The New Christs must be born and the spirit of Christic Love must reign on the planet in the face of the forces of chaos, which disrupt the souls and the nations of the world.

I do not need great beings nor perfect souls, but rather of hearts open to humility and to the call, for love of Our Creator.

May the Lord bless these elements for the healing and redemption of souls, for the sanctification of the essences and the awakening of the New Christs.

Let us ask the Celestial Father for His Grace, so that the Sacred Heart of Jesus may work and manifest in the souls of the world.

Our Father (in Spanish)

At this time, in which all of My pain suffered on the Cross and during the Passion is honored by the Angels of Heaven and of all the Universes, I want you to honor and glorify the Cross of your Redeemer and Lord, so that His Divine Codes of rehabilitation, healing and forgiveness may descend to the world, and into your hearts.

These two priests that I have chosen will strew the water over this place so that, at the same time, I may radiate My Codes of Light and the powers of the Holy Cross to the world and to souls. When they pass by, blessing, you will lift up your crosses, so that you may receive that blessing and carry it with you wherever you go.

Friar Elías:

Let us sing "We Adore" and let us accompany the Lord in this spiritual exercise.

Each one at this time will make their offering to Christ...

With more Faith!!!

My Codes have already been poured out. May they be received in the noble hearts, to honor and glorify the Presence of the Universal King Who descends from the Universe to the Earth, to fill it with many graces and infinite mercies.

Take the cross onto your chest now and say:

Jesus, I trust in You! (x3)

Giving dignity to the Death and the Passion of your Lord, before the angels of Heaven and of the Universe, before the Celestial Authorities, before the Archangels and the Elohim, before the Hallel and the higher forces that govern Creation, in the name of the Light, may this confirmation and surrender to your Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe and of the Earth, be sealed.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. (x3)

I thank you for listening to me from your heart, because an open heart never tires of listening to Me.

Go in peace and in communion with My Spirit on this Friday.