Extraordinary apparition of the Virgin Mary, on the 8th of July of 2018, in Vienna, Austria, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Do not fear.

I am the Queen of Peace, the Virgin of Schoenstatt, Mother of all peoples, Virgin of all cultures, Mother of all languages and Queen of Love.

I come to the world as Mother of the Universe, to remove from your hearts all that distances you from love, all that keeps you apart from God, all that is not part of His Divine Plan.

This is why I have come to Vienna to conclude the mission that My Son has started, to end the suffering of human beings, especially those sufferings that have marked the history of humanity and that nobody, nobody has been able to erase.

This is why I come from Heaven to announce that I Am your Mother who loves Her Children, a Mother who understands humanity and its mistakes, a Mother who has come to the world many times to warn humanity, to correct humanity, to guide them on the path of love.

You have time, My children, to live all that I promise you and bring you, of transforming your lives according to My designs, of forming part of My celestial commands and of making this planet a planet of redemption together with all the Kingdoms of Nature.

Remember then, My children, the unconditional service of your Guardian Angel who is there, present close to you, to take you by the hand towards the Design of God, to remove you from the path of constant suffering and agony that many souls live on many degrees of the consciousness.

Therefore I come through My Grace to grant you the Grace of God, the one you will need to awaken the consciousness, the one you will need to live in life the Principles of God according to His Will.

I want you to open your consciousnesses to the Universe and to all that exists beyond this planet and this humanity.

I invite you, My children, to look up to the Highest, to find in the infinite your history and your origin, to reencounter your path according to the Will of God and to make this a sacred path so that in you and in time you may awaken the virtues of Divinity and these may be part of the project of redemption of humanity.

I come to open the eyes of your superior consciousnesses, searching in all of this path for unity, the one that will lead you to wisdom, in the joy of serving God and above all, in the path of faith.

Austria, like all of Eastern Europe, still needs to heal its most profound wounds of war.

I come to grant you and your last generations My maternal Grace in order to remove the pain from your hearts, the hatred or resentment for having felt apparently abandoned by God.

But God was, in that moment, contemplating His children and sent Me to the world in those times, to announce My Message in Fatima, in order to rescue many souls, many families who escaped from suffering and the horrors of those times.

I do not want, children, to remind you of the past, but to submerge you, through My Heart, in the eternal present, where you will find the Design of God for each one of your lives and consciousnesses.

I come to encourage you to renew the times and to transform these times into great moments of forgiveness and redemption.

I invite you to continue living the School of Prayer because with prayer in your lives and especially in your hearts, you will be able to perceive, My children, which is the new path that you will have to go through at this time.

Therefore, I am here today, with all the angels of the Universe, those you sing Glory to God, to offer you the consecration to My Immaculate Heart.

In this way, My children, in this very simple consecration, but true, that your lives can offer Me at this moment, you will be able to not only help your families who also need the forgiveness and the Love of God, but also help all of Austria and beyond it, radiating, through your consecration, the renewal of time and humanity that forms part of Eastern Europe.

At this moment, before the Presence of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, a new step is granted to your consciousnesses, which want to be led through the path of awakening so that some day, under the aspiration of My Heart, you may feel motivated to serve the world and its humanity expanding, together with your Heavenly Mother, this network of Light, prayer and forgiveness.

Europe still needs much mercy for all it owes to Africa and to America.

I invite you to convert the mistakes of all times into love, in this way you will be sincere hearts, that listen to the Call of God and dare to take a step in the name of Love.

Therefore, I bring you Peace, so that Peace may be conceived in your lives and may triumph in humanity.

We have come now to the moment of your consecration.

May the music of the Children of Mary sound so that I can bless those who will consecrate today.

And today I call Austria to renewal and hope so that, in this place, forgiveness and love may be reached in the hearts that need them the most.

Now, children, that you are at My Feet and that you will know My mysteries, make a sincere petition to Me in the silence of your hearts, so that I may be able to take it to God and it may be fulfilled according to the Divine Will.

May this petition not only be something for your lives, which today are renewed in the Holy Spirit, but also a petition for humanity, that cries out for love and relief of suffering. So be it.

I bless this water in the name of My Son, for you to be baptized and blessed by the fire of the Holy Spirit of the Mother of God and for the talents of your hearts to awaken in honor of the Triumph of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Amen.

I thank you for responding to My call.

May Peace and Goodness descend upon Austria and all the souls who are congregated here.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
