WEEKLY MESSAGE, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF PEACE TO MOTHER SHIMANI

My beloved children:

New keys are available to all My children to reach conversion and the protection of their souls in this time of chaos that the world lives.

These keys, those that already have been delivered, are prayer, fasting, confession and communion with My Son, the Redeemer.

Why do I repeat once and again, by means of all My channels in the world, these same things?

Because humanity does not listen to Me and does not realize that it has, before itself, those simple options that permit them to be saved, united to God, to My Son and to Me, protected from the movements of this world in this time.

What else can a Mother do, but repeat and repeat in every way, in every language, so that all My children in the world can be under My mantle?

That which makes My Immaculate Heart suffer the most is to see how the solution for the suffering of My children is within reach of everyone, and also how the majority of them do not extend their hands to gather the Graces that descend from Heaven. Many prefer to remain in suffering and to not make any effort to enter in My Immaculate Heart, and in the Sacred Heart of My Son.

What will happen when you realize that you have wasted so much time?

I wonder if in this moment your souls will be able to have the strength to convert back?

And if not, how to go forward, knowing that you have refused all the opportunities that Heaven gave you?

There is no greater pain for a Mother than to see Her children turn their back to Peace, to spiritual Healing, to the Love of God, and to see them lose themselves in the chaos of this modern life.

You are still in time, as I have already said to you, to return to the Love of God, to the Sacred Heart of Christ and to Me, your Mother from Heaven that seeks you, that waits for you, to shelter you under Her mantle of light and protection.

My beloveds: it is left for me only to pray tirelessly for each one of you so that My love touches your hearts and you accept to live under My protection.

To all My Marian soldiers, faithful workers of the light, I call you once again to double your efforts, and to pray more consciously for those who do not pray, that do not listen to Me, and that are in serious danger of losing this Grace and this Mercy that is arriving, before the Divine Justice pours itself over the Earth and its humanity.

Reflect, dear children, and take a step towards God.

I love you and I bless you today and always.

Thank you for being with Me today.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace.
