

Tuesday, July 16, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

May today your beings be covered by the brown mantle of humility in the same way as My Sacred Mother who today wears it in honor and in praise to the God of Love.

May on this 16th day of July, consecrated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, your hearts unite themselves to the power and the strength of the ray of humility that incessantly springs from the Immaculate Heart.

May today, as good children of God, your lives experience the exercise of humility so that they may be able to recognize that God is in all of the simple things as also in the reverent and in the sacred.

Also see the ray of humility in the priests, those who day by day preach the Word of Life that must always be full of the charisma of humility and of simplicity in all, because these are My True Disciples and Apostles.

Remain day by day seeking humility in your prayers as well as in your tasks. Do all in the name of the sacred humility so that it may be graced by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as it was once in the Cenacle of the Virgin Mary.

A path to enter into sacred humility is to ask the Holy Spirit to cover you with Its divine light and to show you how to live in humility, to live in this way in detachment from your own selves.

This is My current Aspiration, that each day that passes you be true disciples of humility so that competence, arrogance and vanity may disappear from your consciousnesses. When you assume to live in humility and for the humility of God you will recognize the times in which you hide under your veils.

I ask you that you do not confront them, but that you give them the order of transformation and of transcendence because in this way you will be in harmony. Walk through the same pathway of the Cross, the one that I walked for you, and feel humility as a table of salvation and of obedience to the greater laws and to your spirits.

Today I ask you that every day before three in the afternoon you always re-read the last message that has been posted, because in humility you will understand again what it is that I request from you day by day.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living through the Spirit of Humility!

Christ Jesus, the humble Shepherd.