

Monday, July 22, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

That soul that is tired and takes refuge in My Heart will not perish but so that it may not perish it must allow My Light to remove all darkness from the consciousness and My Love to cover all that is in deep deprivation.

The path of transformation that I promise to you before My Return is as intense and as ardent as an ember in a great fire. All needs to be purified because in this way the soul will be able to be a participant of the new Spirit that will fill the Promised Earth.

For this, My friends, you must trust absolutely in all that which your mind used to not believe to be like this, but in humility and with openness you will manage to see those veils that for such a long time confused your precious paths.

To tear this great web of confusion you must walk in the direction of My Sacred Heart. After six months of daily instruction My Consciousness comes to pick up the ripe fruit and the new seeds that will serve to be sown in arid lands of humanity and of the hearts.

Now it is already time to firmly continue My Path so that the old may be banished forever and the new face of love may be born. I am with you all the time and I calm down your beings in silence.

Under the grace of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for meditating on My words with the heart!

Christ Jesus.