

Tuesday, July 23, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

In truth I tell you that the one who is willing to serve Me will not perish but he or she will endure with Me all that must be removed from the good hearts. This is and this will be this way because those who are chosen by My Consciousness surrender themselves to the full sacrifice for humanity.

Little by little you will discover how My Redeeming Task is in this chaotic world of illusions and expectations.

I insist: under the power of My Father go, My Apostles and do in My Name all that I have told you from the beginning that you were going to do, greater things than those that I did upon the Earth.

The one who believes this will live it and in this way will prove it because in spite of the times that this humanity lives, My Grace will permit impossible things to be concreted in unforeseeable consciousness. My Law of Love is single and this same love that I lived for you will be what will nourish you and will strengthen you in the moments of crisis.

Above all things, may your faith be greater than any situation because in this way you will be living in My Trust. The wheat is already being separated from the chaff but My Merciful Heart will look for those who least deserve My Celestial Grace and I will do it through those who donate themselves, in spite of all, to My Paternal Heart.

That server who gives even his or her life for My Plan, I Myself will free them at the hour of their death and they will be able to get to know for all Eternity the Dwellings that they have searched for without result upon this world. All is permitted but My Love will always win evil because the true love unites souls to God.

Under the Glory of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My lessons in the heart!

Christ Jesus.