

Saturday, July 27, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

The moments of the greatest tests are those in which My Merciful Spirit is present for all of the souls.

For this, in face of any situation of transition or of a battle I ask you to not lose your faith because for these times it must be stronger than an oak and more firm than an iron. Your faith must be the sword that together with love will cut off all evil.

My apostles, brave and decided, will work so that My Redeeming Plan may be a great victory upon the Earth. You must always be with your hearts in the Heights and in the Higher Supreme so that nothing may prevent you from, with humility, realizing the task that has been entrusted to you.

Today My Angels of Peace are upon My Servers, guiding them through the path of the Good and of Love. I love you and I thank you for your perseverance because with a few sheep I will do My Great Miracles of Love.

Go ahead, My soldiers of Mercy!

Under the Light and the Divine Protection of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for receiving My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus.