DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

My children,

May peace reign in your hearts today so that hope may become life and joy in all souls. Today I invite you to discover the five keys that will take you to the Heavens:

Constant charity

Forgetfulness of self

Spontaneous self-giving

Permanent humility

Compassionate love.

With these five keys you will be able to open the doors that will lead you towards the Greater Kingdom.

Remember, dear children that the growth of love in the heart is reached in patience and humility. Therefore, My dear ones, sustain this standard that I am giving you, My banner of peace so that, like the heart, it may radiate the absolute quietness that many souls need to be able to encounter with God.

If souls remained in quietude for a moment many events in the world would not happen and the Creative Universe would be closer to the life of all hearts. Open the doors with these five keys to travel the path of sanctity that all hearts can live.

In God, love towards others awakens. With God you will be walking through a secure place. To God the souls exist as His precious creatures.

I invite you to exercise the five keys that allow the conversion of the heart.

Thank you for responding to My call.

A celestial blessing for the world,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity
