THE FIRST DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I will not give My revelations to the greedy because, in truth I tell you, My Words will never again be despised nor will they be left in a drawer.

Everything I tell you comes from My Father and My Father must return someday through your sacrifice, your giving of self, and your surrender.

I will no longer give My pearls to swine. I will no longer let My Message cease to be experienced and practiced.

For this reason, whomever wants to avail themselves of My revelations must first value them, respect them and be grateful for them, even though they know nothing.

This is the time to assert the Words of the Hierarchy, and it is no longer the time to pretend that you did not understand nor comprehend, because everything that the Hierarchy says is clear and precise.

With your true and permanent reverence, you will be able to be guided and the Divine Word will be able to dwell in your hearts, even though this is the great cycle of transition.

Be like the flowers, seek the rays of the sun and you will feel spiritually alive. You will be nurtured by knowledge and this will give you the wisdom to testify to My presence.

In this cycle I will not come for the curious, the comfortable in spirit. I will not come for those who decided not to change, because My treasures are unique and unrepeatabe.

Let humility prevail within you so that someday, you may be poor in spirit.

I thank you for receiving My impulses of Light!

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus
