

Saturday, February 23, 2019

Daily Message received in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, transmitted by Saint Joseph to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

Even when your body may be weak and your heart tired, never stop raising your eyes toward God.

Even though you do not seem to have strength and your spirit seems to have no faith, never stop raising your eyes toward God.

Even though in the nations, hearts are losing hope, never stop raising your eyes toward God.

Even though the chaos seems to cover the world and the manifestation of a New Life seems distant, never stop raising your eyes toward God.

Even when inside and outside of beings, anguish and fear reign, never stop raising your eyes toward God.

If at least one heart is capable of remaining in God, this, child, will be enough so that, in His time, the Creator may find the path open to reach the Earth.

Supported by the gaze of His children, the Lord will return in glory so that, with His Presence, He may restore hearts, re-ascending the essences and bringing joy back to those who have lost hope.

Let the divine promise be enough for you, just as for God your mere upward gaze toward His Heart will be enough.

If you just wait with faith, everything will be accomplished.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph