

Thursday, May 9, 2019

Daily Message received in the city of Fatima, Portugal, transmitted by Saint Joseph to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

Take the rosary in your hands and pray for this world.

Kneel down before the Tabernacle and pray for this world.

Adore the Eucharistic Body of the Lord, by praying for this world.

Confess with Christ and with God, cleaning your heart so that all hearts become cleane through you.

Renounce distractions and human desires so that the world may attain peace.

Give an example of service, in the silence of your heart, to offer reparation to God.

Let your life no longer be for you. Do not lose yourself in the labyrinths of your mind and of human temptations.

Unite to your brothers and sisters to establish peace. Pray for the holiness of your fellow being, of all beings. Be in your life a path for others to find God.

Do not be temptation and distraction for your brothers and sisters. Be peace and unity with God.

Renounce yourself and embrace the challenge of the void.

Make of yourself, each day more, an instrument of the Creator, because the world needs it.

Your Father and Friend,

The most chaste Saint Joseph