DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

As long as you are in this world, life will be an exercise of constant transcendence and redemption.

For this, do not detain your steps on those things that form part of your indomitable human condition. Surrender to me, day by day, your little beings and drink from My Fountain of Mercy, which will free you from sin.

Let yourselves be brought to the Kingdom of Peace, and of absolute Love. Do not lose sight of My pilgrim footsteps, because I am by your side to teach you the correct use of the Law of the Lord. Affirm your life in the infinite purity of God, aspire each day to be less for yourselves and more for those who in truth need help.

The key for your constant purification is found in prayer and in faith; because through them you will strengthen the path of the living of your vows. I know with anticipation that you will fail Me, I know with anticipation that you will come to Me seeking internal strength, so that you may face your own inner battle.

I only say to you that bravery and love are needed to live in My Project, because to be blessed of spirit, you will know first the desert of you beings. But I will be in the desert to give to you drink from My Merciful Fountain of Pity.

Confess yourselves with Me, and only say to Me every day that you are with Me. Live in faith.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living My words with the heart!

Christ Jesus.
