

Friday, June 29, 2018

Special Apparition of the Virgin Mary, in Geneva, Switzerland, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

When the world understands that we are one, humanity will be saved and there will no longer be suffering or desperation in the hearts.

When humanity understands that we are one, joy will return to the hearts and hope will make souls be reborn.

When humanity understands that we are one, a new humanity will be born and it will not be necessary to live in the past anymore, but rather to look always to the future, to what is more reachable, immediate, to what is available for all souls and that comes from the Kingdom of God.

When humanity understands that we are one, it will no longer be necessary to hold back the mysteries of the Universe, because all will be revealed and divine knowledge will be there for everyone. Human science will someday understand that God, Our Father, is the great Administrator of Creation and of Life; and that we all come from Him and that someday we must return to Him to carry out the synthesis of this experience and thus recreate Creation.

That is why I come to Geneva, seeking to unite all Christians under the Most Pure Spirit of My Son, in which everything will be realized, in which everything will be able to be carried forward, following the steps of the Light of the Lord.

In this way, I come to stabilize all that moves against the evolution of God. Through divine neutrality, I come to bring peace to the hearts that need it and I come to awaken the souls that must open their eyes to the Truth of God.

Through Peace I come to grant these Graces to the world, knowing that for God nothing is impossible and this is an example of what happens today; nothing is impossible for God when He wishes it with the ardor of His Heart.

The spirituality that the world does not live consciously, which is grand and infinite, is very simple and humble. So simple and humble that the ever Virgin Mary, Mother of God, comes to meet you to testify and to confirm the importance of this ecumenical union among the servers of Christ. Because by establishing this ecumenical union, doors all over the world will open that it had not been foreseen would open; doors through which many Graces will be poured and many atonements will be granted to places in the world that were meant to disappear.

Thus, My children, when the first step towards the Call of God is taken, many more things may happen than those which were foreseen.

When the response is real, full of love and simplicity, God can continue working in the hearts and bring more Mercy to the world.

That is why I am here, My children, in Geneva, standing by for that great moment, which anticipates the coming of Christ in a surprising way, never seen before by this humanity.

In the meantime, My children, follow the path that I am indicating to you. Continue building in yourselves this ecumenical spirit that I need to move forward with the Plans of Peace of My Beloved Son.

I need you on this path and on this realization, knowing that it is important and immediate to respond to the needs of humanity, so that more hearts may be healed and redeemed.

I encourage you to live this spirit of Christian ecumenism that will unite races and peoples even further, that will defeat the projects of My enemy and that will cause the Sacred Heart of Jesus to triumph in all souls.

Thus the importance of this moment, My children, because while the Mother of God is present here with you and with the world, with each devoted and believing heart, the omnipresence of the Mother of God can destroy the great currents of evil that pervert souls and remove them from the path of Love of My Son.

Therefore, if I am here, why should you fear?

I am here and I am your Mother, and whoever is near the Mother of God has no reason to fear evil, because evil does not exist, evil is created by the indifference and the ignorance of humankind.

The Love of God does exist; it neutralizes everything, it harmonizes everything and brings peace to hearts.

Hold on to the Love of God and your lives will triumph in the conversion, not only because of daily prayer, but also because of the Sacraments that My Son offers to you, which should be valued and contemplated as true jewels of the Spiritual Universe.

So, My children, I invite you into the spirit of ecumenism, because the world needs it in order to figure out and perceive where this current humanity stands and how distant the path that it treads is from God.

I invite you to make all the necessary effort, because this will help the Plan of God and will, in your hearts, constitute a real purpose that will cause you to walk on the Pathway of Christ and will give you the impulse to inner transformation.

Following these steps, responding to My requests, everything will have been said.

While I am here, I am with the people of Switzerland, from the North to the South and from the East to the West, sowing the cross of victory of Christ at the highest point of the Alps. So that all spirits, all consciousnesses and all hearts may recognize, through the Redeeming Cross of Our Lord, the Advent of Christ in His second glorious Return to the world.

Continue praying for peace and peace will be granted to the world for some more time, and the great representatives of this humanity will make correct decisions, that will be in accordance to the Will of God and especially with the need of the most humble and poor peoples.

As Lady of all nations, I come to call you to solidarity and to the good, because in this way, hearts will also be healed and the most solitary souls of this world will find once more the hope they need to be able to see Christ again.

I am leaving here with a stage completed by all who have responded to My Call. Because the amount does not matter, but rather the truth, which brings hearts here who hear the inner call of the Mother of God; this will build the Plan of God in souls and will bring Light to all the essences of the world.

With so little I can do much, because in the little is the simple, that which is humble and sincere.

Thank you, Divine Mother, for all that you give us!

And I give you the Light of My Hope.

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you for this important moment because later you will see. Amen.