

Tuesday, April 30, 2019

Daily Message received during the journey from the Marian Center of Figueira to the city of Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil, transmitted by Saint Joseph to the visionary Sister Lucía de Jesús

Wherever you go, take the Love and the Grace of God with you so that those who meet you may feel the help and the Grace that comes from the Heart of the Father; feel that it is God Himself Who shelters them through His instruments.

Allow your gaze to be pure and transmit Mercy, may your actions be pure and transmit the blessings you have received from God.

Child, this world needs peacemakers who may themselves be instruments of peace for all beings. Your life must convert into prayer and into permanent service, because today it will no longer be words that transform souls, but examples that, in spite of being silent, will speak loud in this world, so in need of God.

For this reason, go, and on your pilgrimage, be aware of your mission not only while you pray, but while you live.

All beings on this Earth have a mission to fulfill, and many of those you find on your path need to awaken, and today I tell you that an act of mercy can change the life of a brother, just as much as a thousand prayers made with the heart.

Today, this is my petition to you: that you bring peace wherever you go; that you be peace for the world.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph