DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

At this hour of Mercy My Great Thirst for souls is quenched through the prayers of all of the devoted souls. At this hour of Mercy My Rays pass through the wounded, lonely and sick hearts bringing for all of them an inexplicable state of peace.

Besides, at this hour of Mercy all of those who pray who are united to My Blessed Heart help Me to open the spiritual source that permits the washing of the stains of the sinful hearts and permits the saving of the souls that are lost.

Who trusts in My Mercy will be able to understand My Mystery of pure and unfathomable love for humanity. For this, day by day, I call My ones, so that they may help Me to rescue the part of the world that is still spiritually blind and deaf.

For this I count much on the shepherds, those who out of love I have entrusted the priesthood and the sacred ceremony of the Eucharist so that they may feed the spirit of the People of God. Through My Mercy you will find the path of your conversion and forgiveness.

Under the Love of God, be blessed.

Thank you for meditating on My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus.
