

Tuesday, July 30, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Dears,

My friends,

Do not fear failing because of what you were in the past or for what you have now discovered about yourselves and that must die from now.

I am here on this day of Glory and Mercy because you have sincerely accepted to wash your faces and your feet in My Source of repairing and inexhaustible Love. For this, day by day, by means of the merciful prayer, I encourage you to go ahead in the search of the path of sanctity and of perfection of the soul so that all may be renewed in life. I know how you feel now and how much you need My Help. I have My Heart open so that in faith and in trust you may be able to enter in It without fear and without disturbances. I will not judge you, I will only show to your hearts the time of the great step for your spirits.

Cultivate a spirit of hope because if you do it you will see being born in you My Joy and My Mercy. Remember that the world is suffering and purifying itself, it is time that My Soldiers abandon the swords from yesterday and to carry in their hearts and between their hands My Banner of Redemption.

My Paternal Spirit accompanies you today in the silence of prayer.

Under the Grace of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for transforming your lives through My Holy Heart of Love!

Christ Jesus, You Faithful Confessor.