Special Apparition of the Virgin Mary on May 21, 2018, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Today I come to the world as the Lady of Silence so that, in silence, humanity may hear the Voice of God, that sacred Voice that echoes throughout times and brings the announcement of the new and of the salvation of humanity.

For this to be possible, My children, and so that humanity can truly listen, today I bring you the Gift of Silence, so that it can be awakened in you and in your brothers and sisters, so that through this Gift you may comprehend all things and, above all, feel all the requests that our Sacred Hearts announce to the world, again and again.

Today I come as the Lady of Silence, so that many more souls may hear God within themselves, so that through the path of silence peace may be established in the world through the ears that listen to God with sincerity and fervor; because it will be this silence that will transform you, it will bring the renewal of your lives and consciousnesses.

From the Celestial Universe today I come to you as the Lady of Silence, because I know that most of My children still do not listen, and the Word of God, My children, cannot be wasted.

With this welcome that your hearts lived today before My Presence, I invite you, My children, to deepen into the path of silence for humanity; so that away from the noises, the distractions and the perturbation, you can glimpse into the inner Universe of each being the path of healing, a path that will lead you to the truth and to the elevation of consciousness.

If you now listen to the Lady of Silence, it is because Her words bring a potent energy which will permeate your cells and consciousnesses with the Gift of Silence that the Mother of God has lived on Earth, from the birth of Christ to His ascension, and a little more, after that event.

The Gift of Silence, My children, will lead you to reflect on the Passion of Christ and you will discover great mysteries that are kept in the Passion of Jesus; I would say, sacred celestial merits that humanity needs at this time to be able to live the redemption and conversion, the total transformation of the Planetary Consciousness to a Consciousness of compassion and love, not only for the Creation and the Universe, but also for the whole planet and its Younger Kingdoms.

The Gift of Silence will make you see the truth and the need of the planet and even more: if you unite silence and prayer you will see many more things, as the Mother of God sees in this difficult time.

It is this Gift of Silence, the one that I must take to Europe in this cycle, in order to take My children out of the great planetary distraction and illusion.

You, My children, who are here, have heard, by means of the Gift of Silence, at some point. This is why I need this Gift to echo through these times, may it first incarnate in your lives so that afterwards it may incarnate in the world.

The Gift of Silence will lead humanity and especially Europe to become conscious of what it is not doing well and of how urgent it is, My children, to change the planetary situation.

Therefore, between your hearts and as sister nations, there can be no differences or omissions.

The Gift of the Silence of God is for all, and on this special day I come to generate it within you, because the Gift of Silence will bring humanity to have more wisdom and, above all, discernment before the trials it will face.

If, My children, you still do not understand what to do with your lives and do not have a clear answer as to which path to follow, it is because the Gift of Silence has not yet penetrated your beings; your thoughts have not been silenced, your feelings have not been quieted, there has not been a moment of peace in order to be able to reflect.

Through the path of prayer of the heart that you experience in these times, I invite you, My children, to invoke the power of the Gift of Silence; so that not only your lives but also the planet is transformed, so that there may be a greater time of peace in humanity and especially in those who are more disturbed and immersed in darkness and evil.

By means of My Immaculate Heart, as the Lady of Silence, today I pour out the power of this spiritual Gift so that it may be propagated in the world, in order for My Immaculate Heart to triumph for many more centuries, by the help of My children, by the response of My apostles and the sincerity of the servants who are prepared in this time to build the Plan of God on Earth and, above all, to manifest it step by step, according to the designs of our Father-Mother Creator.

May the Gift of Silence, My children, lead you to the understanding, so that the flame of the Wisdom of God may spring up in your heart. And when you have to make a very important decision in your lives, the Gift of Silence can intercede and bring Light to the necessary answers.

I only ask you to help Me build the Work in Europe and in the world. Today is Europe, but tomorrow it will be another part of the planet; for example, Asia and Oceania, which are being specially prepared by My Heart, so that it first gestates internally in you and then becomes a reality and not an extensive and extreme request to ask for loving help.

Through the Gift of Silence, that today pours My Immaculate Heart into the world, I come to speak to you about the importance of fulfilling the designs of God, not only through the path of prayer and faith, but also through collaboration, unconditional and permanent.

Children, it is important that you clearly understand My words so that you do not get confused. Everything I say and decree comes from the precious Source of God for the world; and today, it is the Gift of Silence that acts through this moment, but tomorrow it will be another gift or other Virtue of God that will act because of the great planetary need, because of the great urgency of a true and not a tepid response, a response that can overflow with love in your hearts, to make them everyday wiser and worthy to be receptacles of the designs of God and to fulfill them, one by one.

I do not need you to make great efforts to fulfill My call. Through the Gift of Silence that I bring to you today, I ask that your effort be true and transparent so that My enemy cannot confuse you.

Remember that my desire for Europe is to step on the head of the serpent and keep on stepping on it, in order for many, many more souls in the world to be able to enter through the heavenly door that I am opening at this time, through My Immaculate Heart, that everyone may cross and pass through, so that no one is left behind, none of My children, however small a believer they may be of the Will of God and His designs.

I invite you to be precursors of this Gift of Silence, so that the Gift may impel you to carry out the Will of God, just as it is presented and displayed.

With this love that today I give you from the depths of My Spirit, and as I have done in other moments, I implore you for collaboration, because greater things must happen and this will depend on the response of My children and the sincerity of their hearts.

Again I say to you, My dear children: May the Gift of Silence show you the truth of all this, which goes beyond the power of men and the will of souls; it is a Higher design, which your Heavenly Mother is weaving and building in the world through the nations and the response of Her children.

I would like, tonight, that your immediate response, your unconditional collaboration and your greater dedication to God, were like this flowers placed at the foot of My altar; and that today I can raise to Heaven, not only your prayers and supplications, but also your confirmed response before the Mother of God.

I know that you will not reach full consciousness about the Mysteries of the Father yet, but believe, My children, that through the Gifts of God and the experience of each one of them, you will be able to reach it, because this is My desire of Mother, for your spiritual and inner growth in these times of emergency.

Europe needs a lot of help, like you.

I invite you to live, through the Gift of Silence, what the Holy Family of Nazareth lived in fullness and love; not only sharing what little they had, but also donating themselves unconditionally to those most in need, to the great Will of God, for it to be fulfilled, even though at some point our poor and humble minds did not understand it.

Love can do all, transform all and reach all. That is what opens the Gates of the heavens, so that the Graces may descend and the consciousnesses are redeemed according to the Will of God.

I invite you, My children, to pray for this cause, for the mission in Europe and Africa, because very difficult things could happen in those places and much more blood could shed, not only in the Middle East but beyond that region.

I do not want you to see My Face full with tears, but full of love, sweetness and light, reflecting the joy for the response of My children, who become aware before everything happens and who's hearts move more than their minds to carry forward the Will of God, the infinite Work of His Mercy and His divine Pity.

With all this, I invite you from tomorrow on to pray, with your Heavenly Mother, a novena, for the concretion of the Plan of God in Europe and Africa; so that each step that will be given and each effort that will be lived, can be realized by all in an unconditional and true way.

For this I ask you to invoke, through prayer, the Sacred intercession of the Most Chaste Heart of Saint Joseph; and that through His presence and His divine intercession, this Work is fulfilled as planned, with the help of My children, with the sincerity of their hearts, with the truth of each of their lives.

On the ninth day, I will announce if this mission will be fulfilled or if the tragedy in Europe will be installed.

As the Lady of Silence and Dame of Justice, I would like to see the plates of the scale in balanced and not in imbalance, as it is at this moment.

Balance in the world is build, by the consciousness of the humanity of the surface, and this brings opportunities to the world and the plenitude of God in the hearts of the simple.

This is all I wanted to say today, thanking you for the love that I have felt in you today, the fervent devotion you have expressed and the peace that you have implanted through this offering to the Mother of God.

I would like these sacred expressions of love from My children today to be repeated, celebrating with the Heavenly Mother the triumph of the Plan of God on Earth, in order for the angels to spread throughout the world the infinite Graces from the Heart of God, which will transform those who suffer and heal those who are sick of spirit and body.

Receive now My blessing, placing your hands in the sign of reception and gratitude.

Beloved Mother of the world,

incandescent and Universal star,

pour your powerful rays upon the whole world, pour the codes of the precious Blood of Christ, so that all may be purified and we may be worthy of living in the Kingdom of Abba. (x3)

Amen.

Let us raise all gratitude and honor to God; and also to all the angels of Heaven for transforming and transubstantiating all forms, within and outside of beings, and in all the planetary consciousness.

I would like that on this day of celebration and light, confirming your absolute 'Yes' to God and the fulfillment of His Plan on the surface of the Earth, we offer to our Creator Father, on this sacred day, the song 'Hallelujah', as a praise to the Father and as a moment for each one of you to make an offering to the Creator, so He may welcome it in His bosom and thus, He may mightily express His Mercy.

I bless you and I thank you for responding to My call, up to the present.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
