DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Pray for a true religiosity, so that human hearts incline to the spirituality of being in God and of consciously being part of the Creator.

Cry out for souls to receive an opportunity of awakening and of deepening into their awakening, when they already feel awakened.

Beg to the Father for those souls that have offered to be His representatives in the world, regardless of their creed, to be true and sincere in the love for God, because the love for God will lead them to the correct path, to the Narrow Door of the Heart of the Lord.

Trust that, despite the differences, the one that lives to express, multiply, experience and give the love of God will find the path to unity with the Father, and it is there where religions will understand one another; it is there where philosophies will be freed from their ignorance and will find the Truth.

Throughout this time, children, the Truth of God and life, revealed in parts to human beings and hidden in its fullness within the essence of Christic Love, will be completely revealed to you. And you will understand that inside of true love there was no wrong religion but, in truth, a true one that was not completely revealed but shared between the children of God so that, when each one would follow His precepts and path of Love, they could meet one another, and all with the Light of the Divine Truth.

Just pray for the sanctity and purity of religions.

Pray so that you do not confuse the ways of God with the ways of humans.

Pray so that beings may reconnect with their Creator, wherever they are, through love.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
