DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

The Reliquary is the mirror of My Heart. In it is held everything that I experienced as consciousness, from the Origin until the return to the Heart of God.

In the Reliquary is held the history written by the Creator for My being. Upon those letters of light, written by the Hands of God, I walked through My evolution. My steps touched those golden letters, and I embraced each one of His designs with love.

I radiate this experience, of untiring obedience, to you when you contemplate the Reliquary of My Heart. Through that mirror of light, My peace expands, and everything that I am today can touch humanity.

Today, children, I am not only the adoptive father of Jesus. My heart learned how to return to God and, guided by the Creator, I achieved the wholeness of accomplishing His Will. My consciousness expanded to be part of His Plan, and I became a pencil in His Hands.

Without body and without form, My spirit returned to the Origin of Life, but My consciousness continues to serve the Creator until the last of His creatures achieves unity with Him.

Through the Reliquary of My Heart, I bring you this experience so that your evolution may also move through Divine Will.

Love to follow the steps that God writes for your lives, and even though many times that may be an invitation to sacrifice, this sacrifice will lead you to the Origin.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
