Private apparition of Christ Jesus on September 3, 2018, in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandú, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús to be transmitted during the 62nd Marathon of Divine Mercy

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

As at the Mount of Olives, today I speak to the Heart of God so that He may hear the Voice of His Son in the face of the great planetary need, so that He may hear the voice of His servers in light of the cry and the entreaty of their prayers, so that He may avail Himself of all the sacrifices and all the renunciation in order to carry forward His Sacred Plan.

Today I carry your consciousnesses to the Universe, to the great Sidereal pinnacle, so that the great archangels may contemplate them, so that the Mental Universe may perceive them, so that the Spiritual Universe welcome them, so that all Creation help them in this final moment in which the last operations of the Hierarchy are in play for defining the New Humanity.

So, open your hearts to this feeling of union with God, whatever it takes, whatever happens.

Let your heart not change in feeling nor change its love for God because what is written is being fulfilled, within and outside of beings.

The great revelations are coming to announce to humanity that it is time to change its consciousness and to get out of this method of constant self-destruction and self-harm.

I will come to the world a second time, walking like a pilgrim in the Universe, crossing portals and states of consciousness to finally arrive here, on Earth, to announce the last word of the salvation and the redemption of humanity; to carry forward the judgment of the fallen, of those who fell in the Universe as well as on Earth, and to also take to Heaven those who glorified My Name and made it a part of themselves, not only in their spiritual life, but also in their works of charity and of good.

Each day that goes by this time draws closer, thus the importance of your spirits being linked to the great sidereal dome where all the Hierarchies come together with the greatest degree of love, to contemplate the humanity that has lost its innocence, its transparency, its faithfulness and its commitment to Creation.

This small planet, which is a dot in the great sidereal space, is very loved and considered by other Universes, by other humanities, by other consciousnesses that came before all your consciousnesses, since before the beginning of the first humanity.

So, understand, companions, that you are not walking alone in this humanity nor throughout time nor throughout the generations; that you are all observed and accompanied by something that comes from the Infinite and from the Greater, like a great stream of light and of love that offers itself, from cycle to cycle and from era to era, so that humanity may awaken to the reason and to the motive of its real purpose.

As with other humanities, you, companions, are writing a new story, and this story you are writing today will bear its fruit when it comes into correspondence with the Universe, with the Will.

That is why the challenges of these times will be demanding and need hard work.

An unconditional and greater love must be born in you, capable of transcending the limits, the barriers and the obstacles of the material and outdated consciousness.

This current humanity has reached the most culminating point after the last times, after the last millions of years that have gone by since the emergence of the first Project through Adam and Eve.

Now, in these crucial times, receive the impulses from the sidereal dome of the Universe so that you, and the next generation that will come after you, not continue to generate in your spiritual consciousness the original sin and the mistakes that always cause you to succumb to the hells of this Earth.

I open the doors to the Universal Consciousness so that all may be able to enter and find this very important link with their true spirits, which by signing a commitment with the Universe, came to Earth to fulfill a part of the great and infinite Will.

To those who today live the Will of God, feel yourselves to be participants in the joy of the Universe, despite going through crucial and defining moments.

To those who today do not fulfill it, there will be a last opportunity for repentance and reflection, in order that you not miss the inflow of Grace that comes from the Heart of the Father.

Thus, all the Hierarchies of the Universe and the great archangels of the Mental Universe have gotten together to evaluate this end time, which is part of the great revelation of the Apocalypse, in which very unknown signs and very profound revelations will reach consciousnesses for the purpose of uplifting their state and vibration so that they may perceive reality.

It is the moment to bring to Earth this legacy that you once experienced in the Universe. It is time to offer it to the Father so that it may be available within His Plan of Love and of Redemption.

In this way, you will learn to transmute your own aspects and conditions so that by forging the light of your spirits, you will be in communion with the Highest and within the great current of Divinity.

Your suns will incandescently shine.

Your eyes will open to see the signs that will appear on the horizon and that the Universe itself will project upon the Earth to warn humanity of the last messages of the great awakening.

It will not matter anymore who believes or who does not believe, who is present or who is far away.

Creation is thinking about a great definition, revealing Its Mysteries and opening the doors with its keys, so spiritual and inner that they will uplift consciousness.

So recover your filiation with the Universe and say "yes" to the Voice you hear from God through His Son, and you will help to build the new that must arrive someday and that perhaps you might not see physically because you will not be present.

But you, and mainly your consciousnesses, can be that bridge so that more miserable and ungrateful consciousnesses may have the opportunity to redefine their lives, to find the path again, and especially, to reach My Heart, where I have treasures for all, where I express ideas and principles for the consciousnesses that follow Me and serve Me.

Do not allow your stars to stop shining.

Hold on to Divine Unity and all will take place as foreseen.

But from the Universe the sign will come, as it comes at this moment for all, where the attention on the Words of the Hierarchy will be essential for your walking and your guidance.

Open your heart, then, still more so that the fire of the Hierarchy may be able to enter and transubstantiate your condition, making it divine, sublime and uplifted to the service of God.

In this way, your inner spirits will be closer, and inside yourselves you will feel this fire that will move you and will motivate you to carry the Plan forward, in spite of what happens or what presents itself on your paths.

So re-experience this filiation with the Highest and remember it every day, because there will be no next time.

The opportunities are ending, the graces of the Universe are being reduced, Mercy gathers Its Source so that Justice may come.

Unfortunately, it is time to choose and to not be on two paths at the same time.

I do not want My disciples to be like coins. I want your honesty and your confirmation in the presence of My Heart, because I will never leave you alone, when you trust in Me.

I would like more souls and more consciousnesses in the world to hear this, in more tongues and in more languages, but first I come to say this to you because you are the ones who are closest to Me, walking at My side after so many experiences and tests.

Once more, the Universe presents itself in Its Spiritual Consciousness to shelter and receive you, to look inside you and see what truly exists and what arose from the Sources of the Universe.

So receive this message of peace and of consciousness from the brothers and sisters of yesteryear.

Feel the pulsating of other Universes that radiate their love and their peace to humanity and to its wounded planet,

The change of a few will cause a great change in the whole of humanity, it has always been this way, history repeats itself with different experiences, but with the same consciousnesses of other times.

The Flame of the Divine Purpose blesses you today and guides you to your destiny, which has been thought of by Adonai.

So receive My blessing from all the great Consciousnesses of the Universe, so that the fallen stars may rise, so that the sleeping cells awaken, so that you may cross the portal towards the New

Humanity, in Christ and for Christ.

The time that will come will be very hard. The suffering that humanity has chosen will be very great, but the Universe will be attentive to the voice that asks and pleads for help, because it will be heard with sincerity.

Go through the times bravely and continue writing this very promising change, which should start first in your lives, to afterwards begin in the world.

Today I uplift you all in My Prayer.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
