DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

The Temple of Purity that is guarded within every being is sometimes destroyed by the war of the personality and the ego.

In My Infinite Mercy I come to reconstruct in you that which is crumbled by the human terrestrial forces. I come to invite you to enter into My Mercy so that you may never lose the original essence, just as God created you from the beginning.

But now, I call you to remember the principle of purity. It is a difficult task to search for it and then keep it in the center of your heart because soon there will be interferences that prevent this sacred purity from being made manifest in each one of you.

For this, attempt to be in My Source of Mercy because from there I will purify you and you will be born again as essences and as renewed souls. Try to guard the spirit to be pure daily, in every action as in every word. In this way your examples will profoundly help with what humanity has lost: the ability to be pure souls of heart.

I guide you, I conduct you towards a straight and pure path, that which will lead you to find wisdom and love for those impure attitudes that stain your spirits. To be pure is to be true of heart without guarding anything for oneself. To be pure is to recognize Me in the other and to have compassion and mercy for the impurities of the peer.

Under the Light of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living in the purity of My Heart!

Christ Jesus
