

Sunday, April 14, 2019

Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus during the Sacred Week, Day 1, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, transmitted to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

The Sun of God will come after the great planetary storm and all the secrets will already have been unveiled.

The great treasury of redemption will be opened and the Patriarchs of yesteryear will summon all the tribes of the Earth so that they may assemble in the Name of the Lord.

The Almighty will show Himself to the world as He never has before.

No eye will be blinded for seeing Him, no matter how intense His luminosity.

To the Earth He will bring all His splendor, all His Power and all His Glory; and the New Christs, who today are being formed in My path of self-giving and love, will participate in this great event.

The fallen angel will already have been redeemed and all perverse forces of the Earth will be expelled, because by the power of prayer of all My followers, and by the persistence and faith in spite of the attacks of the enemy, My Sacred Heart will have Its victory and Its place in all of Mine.

A sword of light will pierce the planet and the Seven Seals of the Apocalypse will be shown.

Those who have not followed God will beat their chests for having awoken too late.

This is the time of My great Mercy for the world.

This is the time in which everyone can be saved and redeemed before everything happens.

The hour is drawing closer, every day, and there is no clock that can support it, it is something imminent, without precedents, it is something unexpected.

Meanwhile, and while there is time, drink of the fruits of My Blood, eat of My Body by the merits It achieved, and nobody will perish.

I come to the world to awaken it for the last time, because the blindness of humanity is very great and indifference covers the ears of the creatures of God.

But I fully trust in those who persist today, because thus My Celestial Kingdom descends to Earth and, through it, My Father descends to give His Grace and His Blessing to the whole world.

I know that you wanted to hear beautiful words. My Love and My Consciousness are also reflected in this. This is the time of humanity's awareness, it is the time of taking on true responsibilities so that all hearts may cease to be tepid, because I call upon you to carry the cross of the world, just as I carried your sins, although you may not be aware of it.

My Grace, companions, allows you to be able to reach truth in this time, so that, little by little, you set aside the garments of illusion, of world hypnotism and human indifference, which are the deep roots that create the wars and conflicts between nations.

But the suffering will end, not only the suffering that exists within you, but all over the world.

Through you I need to prepare for My coming to humanity. And this is now the moment in which the revelations show that the world is not understanding God's message.

I need you to continue to build within yourselves the refuge that I will seek at the end of these times, because you must still continue to elevate your consciousnesses to come closer each day to the Purpose of God and His Truth.

I have so much to give to the world, and so few receive it, but if today you are here, as well as the brothers and sisters that listen to Me through this medium, it is because you accept what I want to give you, to bring relief to your afflictions and your suffering, to have you be participants in the communion with God and so that one day you may be His worthy children upon the surface of this planet.

Do not fear the revelations I bring you. They are not symbolic, they are real and palpable.

Nobody will be able to hide from the revelations of God, because if it is God Himself that sends Me to the world and to the beginning of this Sacred Week, it is so that you may continue to grow in love and in fidelity to Me.

I still wait for many to give their lives for Me as I have done for you.

This is why it is necessary that the world relives the events of My Passion, again and again, not to be terrified by what I lived and suffered, which was the most profound of all that was told, but so that someday you may be like Me in example and in word, in the giving of self and in surrender.

Your definition toward Me will allow My Work to be completely concretized in humanity, or not.

The world is suffering, just as many peoples, races and cultures are suffering.

I would wish to embrace the planet even more, because it is drowning due to so much pain.

So in the name of Love, Light and Peace, I come to liberate it with the power of all the tools of My Father, with the principles that exist throughout all the Universe and with the great Higher Powers of this immense sidereal space.

This is why I need you to feel My Words in your heart, that you are able to re-experience them and adopt them as a part of yourselves for when I am no longer among you, because this is the time in which the last prophecy that I Myself preached two thousand years ago will be fulfilled.

I promised to be with you till the end of times and here I am, with humility and at service, with resignation and in surrender, as are many of your hearts, prostrated before God and His Majesty, before His Throne and His Celestial Hierarchies, before His angels, archangels, saints and blessed ones, all of them participating today in the opening of the Great Portal toward Redemption and Peace.

But today I already see the results of this Mystery of Love that is within you and which works silently each time you say "yes" to your Lord, to His convocation and call, in spite of what it may be.

God today feels a deep joy for His children, for all that you have offered Him so that His Firstborn could be here today.

I know that you do not know what this means and represents for the Universe and, above all, for your humanity, but just as I was with Mine so long ago, today I am with you in communion with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, so that His Will may be fulfilled.

Today again I tell you and request: "Love one another, as I loved you and love you", because I do not come seeking your miseries but rather your fidelity, your perseverance and your faith in the Plan of My Father, Who is in the Heavens.

Today I come with good news. The world will stop suffering, enduring and being lost, because upon the horizon you will see the Son of God come with all the power of the Heavens and the Universe, revealing the mysteries of Creation and of His Hierarchies, opening the eyes of those who are blind in spirit.

And in that hour, I will find you in a place that you cannot even imagine, but I will find you. I will call you by your true and profound name, and I will congregate you as one people and one race, without differences, without recognitions and without protagonists.

Because He Who will come after Me will be more powerful, it is The One Who created you, who gestated you and gave you life, so that in life you could live His Love and recognize Him, just as the Son and His Holy Mother recognize Him.

I Am the beginning and the end.

ABBUN DAVIN ABBA, AKSHOLAM EMMANUEL, ELI BAJDA, OLAM, IKSI.

It is He Who calls you to live in Him and to reveal to the world His mystery, held in the depths of His Eternal Heart, and so the humanity of this time may recover the project it once lost.

The trumpets will sound and the angels will call the peoples, the races and the cultures. And the religions of the world will finally recognize Christ in their neighbors.

And an unknown, unbreakable and non-transferable union will be lived in the heart of the children of God.

And religions will no longer exist, but rather one people and one humanity under one power and one government in the presence of the authority of the Living Love of God.

The Earth and its surface will be rebuilt. The roots of evil will be dissolved, because the redeemed will proclaim the Holy Name of God, as the people of Israel did.

And neither conflicts nor confrontations, doubts nor uncertainty will exist, because the faith of the prayerful and of those who persevere on this path will triumph, and evil will be defeated in its essence forever.

There will be no duality, there will not be two paths, choice will no longer exist because the people of God, which are the races and all peoples, will live in the living God, in He Who since the beginning always wanted you to be participants in His celestial happiness and in His glory.

Have faith in what I tell you, and it no longer matters, companions, who participates or not in this. What is important, in this time, is that you create the condition so that this may happen, so that the littlest ones of today may experience it in the near future.

And the mothers of this Earth will no longer cry for their children. The families will no longer take refuge in another nation. Hunger and injustice will no longer be the evil of the world.

Because He Who comes upon the horizon will bring Peace and everything will change because it is the Will of God. And the world will live in brotherhood. Amen.

Let us celebrate the beginning of this Week as the beginning of the victory of Christ in the hearts of humankind and those who have faith in His non-material Presence.

Opening the doors of My Celestial Church, today I gather you around My table so that you may again be participants in My Body and in My Blood, in the Gifts of God that were given to the world through His Son in order to save it and redeem it.

But may this Supper of today that we will celebrate be the triumphant Supper of the kind and pious souls in the Lord, who will carry in their hearts the triumph of the Love of Christ and the flame of Faith to illuminate the darkness of these times.

In the Name of the Most High, let us prostrate ourselves as I prostrate myself today before the Father, at His Feet.

May the consequences of your suffering be healed and may this spiritual Grace that I bring you today be shared as the great testimony of unity between beings and peoples.

Today I especially pray for Venezuela. The end is coming and you will see the Light on the heights of your sacred mount, the Light that will destroy evil forever, because the Americas are the new Promised Land.

And all the peoples and nations, in the Name of the Lord, are called so that the Americas and Africa will be the cradle of the New Humanity.

So be it.

We can stand up and continue in this building toward that which is divine, immaculate and pure.

Let the steeples of the Universe sound. Let the bells of this community and of this monastery sound, because the Almighty, in this Holy Week, surrenders again, through the mystery of Love and of the Eucharist, to each one of His children.

May you today be washed by the Holy Spirit, be purified by Its Flame of Love so that, free of all fault and all debt, your inner temples may ignite in the communion with the Love of God.

Let us give thanks and let us celebrate, in the depths of the heart, because the God of Mercy, rather than the God of Justice, has heard the voice of the prayerful. And by the merits of My Passion, today the souls of the world and the essences of God are rescued by the faith that the prayerful gave My Heart.

---

Let us celebrate, because many souls of hell will today enter into Heaven through the work of the merciful.

May the altars of Creation blossom. May the candles of Adoration be lit, because He Who loves you has heard you and His Celestial Kingdom has touched the Earth and healed deep wounds.

---

Universal Father,
Eternal God of life and all creation,
hear now the voice of Your Son,
Who at the doors of the New Jerusalem implores for Your Grace and Your Light so that the world may be bathed by the potency of Your Spirit, of Your Soul and Divinity, and so that all may celebrate the joy of being here today, in You.
Amen.

Just as You bless Heaven,
May You today bless the Earth,
by the unfathomable power of Your Mercy and Your Pity.
Erase suffering from the hearts,
reignite the flame of Your Faith in souls
so that at the end of their lives, in the last breath of their bodies,
they may see the portal opening that will take them toward Your Celestial Kingdom.

Amen.

Holy art thou, Lord of the Universe,
for all that You created and manifested.

Holy art thou, Lord, for the life that You generated and awakened.

Holy art thou, Lord, for having created women so that they could be mothers of Your children until the end of their days.

Holy art thou, Lord, for the men who work Your soil and cultivate it to eat of Your Sacred Gifts, of the Gifts of Nature.

Holy art thou, Lord, for having sent Me to the world as a simple and humble man to demonstrate the infinite Universe of Your Humility and Your Peace.

Amen.

---

And the moment comes in which the Son of Man will be transubstantiated through the form of bread and wine, into His Body and His Blood.

May your hearts relive this moment of the sacrifice and the surrender of your Master and Lord for humanity.

Those of us who can may kneel and those who cannot may remain standing.

Lord, I remember the opportunity you gave Me, of being able to live this great sacrifice for humanity, and in the name of the events experienced at the Last Supper, today I remind you: "Take and eat of It, all of you, for this is My Holy Body that was surrendered for humankind for the remission of sins."

Let us repeat: We adore You, Lord, and we bless You.

In the same way as in the past, today I tell you again: "Take and drink all of It, because this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out by the Lamb of God for the forgiveness of sins; do this in remembrance of Me."

We adore You, Lord, and we bless You.

And in union with the Most Holy Trinity, we take each other's hands to repeat the great decree of union of souls with the Universe of God.

Our Father (in Portuguese)

And thus is consummated the mystery of the Love of God in the Eucharist and in the Blood of Christ.

And thus is revealed to the world, in a simple and humble, sacred and blessed way, the Will of God, and the fulfillment of His Project of Love on Earth.

Let us venerate and adore He Who gave us life and the opportunity to love, to forgive and to reconcile.

By the merits of His Beloved Son, may the Lord absolve you and grant you the Sacrament of Reconciliation so that you may feel His Eternal Peace.

I bless you on this first day, at the doors of the time of revelation and of consciousness.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us stand up.

And in the name of Love and Unity, in all humanity, you will give each other the greeting of Peace.

I thank you.