MESSAGE FOR THE SPECIAL APPARITION IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF THE CHILD KING, TERESÓPOLIS, RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, TRANSMITTED BY THE MOST HOLY VIRGIN OF NAZARETH TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

Dear children:

Come to My arms, those thirsty for the Spirit of God, those who have never felt in their hearts the presence of the Most High, so that through My presence they may discover in their lives the Grace that is to live under the glorious mantle of My Son, and under the Infinite Mercy of God the Father.

My children, today I come to your lives to bring to you courage and Peace, so that you may not suffer for actions of the past, but that you may redeem in your hearts all that which does not correspond to the divine presence.

Wash today your little hearts in the Fountain of Grace that I make come out in this city and in this state, so that all may have the opportunity of be renewed before God.

My presence comes to this place to show the Greatness of God, and His infinite Mercy towards His children.

The Lord has asked Me to be among His little children, and that the Light that My Heart radiates may arrive to each space, even though it may not feel, and may not open to My presence, because it ignores My real existence.

Today I want to show you that the Sacred scriptures are not stories created to maintain Faith in the heart of people. The life of the Sacred Family and above all the life of Jesus, came to renew the world and to bring to all the creatures the living example of love, that which you should love and follow for all eternity.

The Sacred Family is the same today and always, and is not wrapped up in the religious books, but is alive in each one of your lives.

My Heart, the same born in Nazareth, returns from centuries to centuries to awaken those who have not awakened in the presence of My Son, and who have not been touched definitively by His Sacrifice.

Those who have not been healed by the Blood of Christ today receive a new opportunity to be healed by His Spirit, by His Glorified Body present in the Eucharist.

As I have said to you over the centuries, I return to say to you again to open your hearts to discover the new, and to discover the Most Holy presence of the divinity in your lives.

My arms are always open, dear children, to receive even the most lost of My children. Do not look to the past, do not fill your lives with bitterness, feeding your guilts. Place all the fear and all the pain at My feet, and walk towards My arms.

My eyes do not contemplate the imperfections; they contemplate the essences and the pure intentions of to be transformed. If you take the first step, I will be able to guide you and conduct you for all of the rest of the way. Just encourage yourselves to follow this trajectory of Redemption.

The Lord waits for each one of His creatures, as a father waits for his prodigal child.

Come, come without delay, come in prayer, come in confidence and in absolute Faith. Surrender yourselves without fear to My Heart.

The only thing I ask you is that you surrender your miseries, and in exchange I offer you Infinite Mercy.

I love you Always.

I thank you for coming to My encounter.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace.
