DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

On this path of transformation of your lives is present My Sacred Heart of Love.

The one who seeks Me and who truly loves Me will receive from Me the love and the trust of My Kingdom. The one who makes an effort to live in Me will receive from My Spirit temperance and what is yet to come. All of the souls are part of My Redeeming Project, all of the hearts are partakers of My Path to Heaven, in all of them I affirm My bases of peace and of redemption so that the New Earth may be able to manifest itself.

I still try to Be all for the souls to the point that the hearts feel craving to be with Me as if nothing else existed. In this way I give to you new hearts that will need healing, charity and love because I expect My Servers to donate and to give to their peers the love that they feel for Me. In this way the true fraternity will be able to be constructed and there will no longer exist barriers or preferences between My ones.

I wait that all of the hearts always strengthen their lives through My Presence. I only expect that new Christs of love and of forgiveness be born.

Under the Absolute Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Heart of Redemption!

Christ Jesus
