DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

As the awakening of the new spring My Heart flourishes in your hearts to remind you of the commitment of love with Me. For this today I ask you that now and always you rest in My arms to dissolve the tiredness from such a long walk.

There, in My Universal Being, you will find comfort and strength to carry on walking. The few that in truth answer to My call I thank for the inner effort in persisting in spite of the weight of life and of distress.

My hands offer the light of My Healing so that you may soon be able to be cured.

Under the Light of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for persisting in the Project of My Heart!

Christ Jesus
