DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

In truth I tell you that the souls forget My Divine Piety. Because it will be through Piety that I will be able to resolve your problems.

I ask you that you be brave and that with courage and braveness you face the headwinds that will come to your lives. I will never abandon My soldiers because the moment has come for My ones to take the steps towards the ascension of the heart.

In My eternal silence I shelter you within My Being, in My Heart I commune with all of you. Do not fear to be completely empty before life or before your families because it is only My Love that unites you.

It is only My Redemption that will resuscitate you in life. It will be only My Mercy that at the difficult moments will fulfill you and My Source will quench your inner thirst. Look always only to the horizon because a new star of peace and of hope will emerge in your life. You will not be in the darkness because whoever trusts the power of My Mercy will be guided until the end.

In truth I do not promise you joys in this life, I do promise you Blessings and Graces in the upcoming eternity. There you will be together with Me, there will no longer exist suffering nor pain for learning.

I Am Your Path, Your Piety and Your Sun.

Stay with Me, it is time to look at the infinite and to encounter the light of My Mercy.

Under the Grace of the Father, be blessed and meek.

Thank you for living in My Heart!

Christ Jesus, Your King

Prayer to be recited every Tuesday for the formation of the Light-Communities and for all servers.

May my hand never separate from the fraternal hand of my brother, because for Christ I will grow and become a new being.

May my feet walk along side my brother,
because in Christ we will follow His steps of light.

May my eyes always look to Heaven, because together with my brother we will search for the Eternal Grace of God.

May my being donate itself entirely to the neighbor, because the New Humanity will be born with Christ.

In You, Lord, is my strength.
By you, Lord, I will be redeemed.
With you, Lord, we will fulfill the Plan of God upon the entire Earth.

May Brotherhood emerge among beings.
May Fraternity be the torch of the new apostles.
May Peace be established in each inner essence.

Amen.

Prayer to be recited every Tuesday for the formation of the Communities of Light and for all of the servers.
