DAILY MESSAGE OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF MANAUS, AMAZONAS, BRAZIL TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

There is still inner pain that I feel, even having experienced the Passion. That inner pain comes from the visions that My Father revealed to Me in the Garden of Gethsemane, and which nobody has yet managed to alleviate.

That pain is a consequence of the actions that many of My Own commit and, without realizing it, absolutely believe that everything is alright.

I speak directly about those who have a deeper commitment of consecration than the rest. These souls are the ones that sometimes put My Projects at risk.

However, as I know the human condition, I know what the impossibility of experiencing transformation may mean in certain moments.

Nobody can be transformed or redeemed if they want to remain under the same conditions and situation in which humanity is to be found.

The transformation of the aspects of the being must be clear, and those aspects must not rule over the soul, and even less over the spirit of the disciple.

Therefore, the openness of heart is a shorter path, for avoiding suffering and great resistance.

This is the time to give all for Me, so that humanity and everything that lives on the surface of the Earth, even if they do not deserve it, may receive an opportunity, just as you were called by Me.

With a more peaceful and humble attitude, you will manage to transform your lives and will be a perfect example of My Presence.

You will erect My spiritual Church from the ruins it was turned into by those who have dirtied their hands in sin, and you will be able to embrace My Cross, sharing in My joys and My sufferings as if they were a part of you.

What else do you expect? Am I not the Way, the Truth and the Life?

I thank you for your inner solidarity!

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus
