MESSAGE FOR THE VIGIL OF PRAYER FOR PEACE IN THE NATIONS RECEIVED IN THE RESERVOIR OF GUATAVITA, CUNDINAMARCA, COLOMBIA, TRANSMITTED BY MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today I descend to the Earth, and through my consciousness, I ignite the Mirrors of the Cosmos so that the Mirrors and the doors of the Universe may bring the help that humanity urgently needs in this cycle.

By igniting the Mirrors and opening the doors of the Universe, I bring to all the Attributes of God, although the majority of humanity at the moment is unconscious of what this means for this time.

By igniting the Mirrors, I bring the powerful current of peace, so that the spiritual planes of this planet and of human consciousness may be transmuted and liberated so that, from the most invisible planes to the most material planes, the interferences do not keep descending, those that My enemy imposes in nations and among souls.

This is the time to understand the movement of the Universe and of the Hierarchy so that, being more conscious and more available, you may accompany the Divinity in all that there is to be done in this cycle.

All the necessary help will be delivered by the Universe to humanity, but it will be up to the human consciousness, no matter what, to give a conscious and true response in order to receive all the help it needs, so that souls may not only be freed, but also the chains of oppression, exploitation and conquest that many human beings carry forward, at this moment. Serious actions, for which Universal Justice has a price, a consequence and a response, that will be given at some moment.

But by means of the Mirrors of the Universe that make the Light descend upon the planet and humanity, I come to intercede as Mother of the World and Mother of the whole human race so that the possibility of Mercy and redemption may exist.

So I gather all the Commanders of the Universe, all consciousnesses that unconditionally serve God, in the Universe and on the Earth, so that in this unity and in this brotherhood, the opportunity may be established internally that many, many consciousnesses need to keep evolving in the coming cycle of the Earth or in other parts of the Universe.

Everything will be reordered. Everything will transform. Nothing will remain as it is. The Universe will intervene and will bring the new to all human consciousnesses and especially to the planet that endures the aggressions of the humanity of the surface, all the time.

The spiritual healing granted by the Universe will not only be for the beings of the surface, but also for all the Creation manifested on this blue planet, that is its house, that is its home, is its dwelling place for having the experiences of forgiveness and redemption.

The human beings have forgotten that they are passing through this planet and that afterwards they will depart toward other regions of the Universe to learn what they could not learn here.

But those who open and offer to listen to the Hierarchy, and to fulfill what it requests, will be mediators, will be intercessors, will be collaborators of those who live ignorance, in the blindness of these times, and who have lost the meaning of reality and truth.

Therefore, all the elements of the planet, all the cosmic forces of the Universe that work to establish the Plan of God gather and congregate because these times requires it. And the necessity is more urgent than what the eyes can see and than what the heart can feel.

Today I come as a Mother that governs the macrocosm, that governs the planet which, throughout the times and the infinite Apparitions, throughout all the culminating moments of humanity, has tried to help the children of God, and will keep doing so until the last soul, the most lost and submerged in darkness, receives the opportunity of being redeemed and of finding the path of Light, the path it lost toward the Celestial Father.

Therefore, all the angelical hosts also congregate and join efforts so that the spiritual planes may be within universal order and harmony, although we know that the very human consciousness itself generates many situations that disharmonize and generates chaos in the human race itself.

All human beings, believers or non-believers, atheists or devout, or even those of other religions, must keep in mind and be aware of what they are generating, of what they are producing, not only for the planet, but for their own civilization.

Meanwhile, we make all efforts, we carry out all possible operations and carry forward all the requests of the Universe to maintain the Doors of the Cosmos open, because they are the Doors that will not only liberate chaos toward other regions of the Universe, where it will be transmuted and liberated, but also these Doors that are profoundly internal, spiritual and cosmic will bring the Grace of God to all.

When the human being recognizes that they do not have power above all things and beyond God; when they bow their head down upon the ground, ask for forgiveness and do penitence, the help of the Universe will be stronger, the change of consciousness will be quicker and no one will lose the path toward the Love of God any longer.

The change of the great human situations, of the great problems of the nations and in peoples will have to begin first within each being, because if each being is not in contact with God, with the One or however you want to call or name Him, nothing will be solved.

Open the doors of your hearts, extend your arms toward those who suffer, welcome all those who are not accepted, those who are not understood, those who do not want to change.

Be merciful, be blessed, be peacemakers of My beloved Son, and the world will change in the small things of life and then will be able to change in the greater and larger things. Each one must be responsible for their redemption and for their surrender.

I once told you, beloved children, as I once told the world, not to place the responsibility upon God nor upon anyone else. Each being in this time must perceive the consequences and the responsibility in everything they do and in everything they practice.

The Universe is there to hear you, to receive you, to attend to you and to help you, it only depends on a correct and peacemaking attitude, on repentance and on true change, because if this is not present, the help will not come.

Many are the evils, the adversities and the chaos that the race itself has generated thoughts ties with My adversary. But now a time of truce will come and, in this time, it will be the only and unrepeatable opportunity in which the souls, the consciousnesses and My children will have the chance to change and reverse something for all that is taking place.

I come as a Messenger of the Universe in the name of many more Messengers who circulate and who live in this macrocosm and beyond this galaxy, to tell the world that we are attentive, that we are accompanying the gravity of these times.

But we need and plead for you to stop, to reflect, to meditate and to no longer do evil. Suffering must not be the path of the loss of hundreds of innocent consciousnesses who are mistreated, exploited and sold like animals from a barn

It is time to deter the roots of adversity, generated by My adversary in the ideals of abortion, of the exploitation of nature, of the slaughtering of animals of the sea and of the land, of the transgression and the contamination that all the large industries of the planet produce, in the ambition of power and of money, which only exists in the consciousness of humanity.

Reverse your attitude and the Apocalypse will change. Do not boast nor desire for what does not correspond to you. Be thankful for everything that surrounds you and you will not lose peace.

I thank you in the name of many consciousnesses of the Universe for having listened to Me with bravery and courage, with openness and especially with gratitude.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
