DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

I come to My disciples to encourage them to walk at My side because after the long journey of life will finally be born the true spirit of eternity in each one of the Servers of the Lord.

For this, in this time, join inner strengths through the joy of serving those who still have not been divested from themselves. Day by day My Heart approaches to you in order to demonstrate to you that the perfect path is built only through the love of the heart.

I will lead you to impossible challenges, but I will never leave you alone.

I will give you never-to-be-forgotten sufferings, but I will always assist you because in truth the time has come for the "very few ones" to fulfill the Perfect Plan that is designed in the Heart of God.

All the time, I will sustain you between My Arms. When loneliness seems greater than joy, it is the sign that in truth you are living My Christic Path and you will be forming yourselves as the New Christs of the current time.

Pray for those who do not manage to take safe steps towards My Heart. They need your love and spiritual attention. I accompany you always, even in the falls of life.

Under the Infinite Grace of God, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Heart!

Christ Jesus
